Street Closure Equipment: A block party permit must be secured before your event to use the barricades. If you have done so, please place one barricade at each end of the street.

If you did not obtain a block party permit, you may not close the street or use the barricades. Doing so without a permit is illegal and could result in fines, criminal charges or a lawsuit.

Street closure equipment includes traffic cones, street closed signs and stands. Be sure to keep a physical copy of your permits.

When you get started, please:

- Take a moment to verify that the wheel chocks are securely in place around the rear wheel, and that the wheel lock is secured. The delivery driver will put these items safely into place, but we ask that you double check.
- Make a mental note of how items are stored and secured in the trailer. Most storage areas are labeled to make it easier when packing up after your event.
- If you obtained a block party permit and plan to close your street, put the street closure equipment in place – one at each end of the street.
- If you did not obtain a block party permit, you may not close the street or use the barricades. Doing so without a permit is illegal and could result in fines, criminal charges or a lawsuit.

During the event, please:

- Take a moment throughout the day to make sure everything remains in place and the trailer is safe and secure.
- Have fun!!

When you are ready to pack up, please:

- Wipe down any wet or dirty surfaces with a dry or damp towel. Do not spray the interior of the trailer with water.
- Return all items to their original spot and secure with bungee cords that have been provided. Place all toys and activates back in their labeled bins and bags and return to the shelves.
- Once everything is packed up, locked and ready to be picked up, please confirm that there are no other vehicles or obstructions that would prevent city staff from picking up the trailer Monday morning.
