MINUTES OF GRAND JUNCTION ARTS COMMISSION
February 20, 1991. 7:30

Attending: Allison Sarmo, Mary Buss, Julie Schroeder-Wright, Ann Sanders, Larry Mazzeno, John Patterson, Vic Crumbaker, Tim Wedel, Sandra Brown, and Jim Syring (Consultant).

Questionnaires: Sample of 200-300 people is statistically valid, plus or minus five percent. A random sample from the telephone book will be used. In addition, questionnaires will be given to some selected groups but these will be tabulated separately from the random sample.

If each questionnaire takes ten to twenty minutes to complete (average, including re-dials after a busy signal, etc.) Two hundred questionnaires is five to ten per hour or twenty to forty hours.

Each Commission member agreed to do ten questionnaires. Sandra and Allison may do more. Mike Smedley and Dr. Bill Merkle may be able to help out. Brenda Swille will do the rest. Commission members thought they could do the telephone survey without training.

Sandra will do the sample and Allison the pre-survey test.

Discussion about the questionnaire itself led to a re-organizing of the questions and some re-wording.

The Administrative Committee will meet to finalize the list for invitations to the Plan Steering Committee and who should be asked to chair. Some discussion of possible people went on but no decisions were made.

The next scheduled Art Commission Meeting will be March 13, 1991 at 7:30 at City Hall. You should receive your questionnaire packets in the mail along with the names to contact from the phone book before the next meeting.

The rest of the agenda was tabled at 9:45 p.m.

Respectfully,

Sandra Brown
