MINUTES FOR THE GRAND JUNCTION COMMISSION OF ARTS AND CULTURE
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1992 - 7:00PM

ATTENDING: Mary Buss, Vic Crumbaker, Stephen Laiche, Larry Mazzeno, Allison Sarmo, Julie Schroeder-Wright, and Brenda Swille.

First on the agenda was to review the proposals and resumes from potential consultants. Interviews were to begin at 7:15. The first person scheduled was Dennis Woodrich but he withdrew so the Commission moved on to other business.

1. Allison Sarmo passed out the new revised By-Laws for the Commission, approved by the City Council.
2. Work on the promotion video is on hold due to the cameras are not in yet.
3. Elections were held for the offices of Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary. Larry Mazzeno nominated Allison Sarmo for Chairperson and all seconded it, making Allison Chairperson by unanimous vote. Julie Schroeder-Wright nominated Larry Mazzeno for Vice Chairperson and vice versa. The vote was a tie so a coin was tossed. The toss was won by Julie ending the election with:
Allison Sarmo - Chairperson
Julie Schroeder-Wright - Vice Chairperson
Larry Mazzeno - Secretary

The interviews for potential consultants was next starting with Dean Davies at 7:45, then Kirk McConnell at 8:15. The Commission discussed both candidates and then voted five to one for Kirk McConnell as the new Project Consultant.

The next scheduled meeting for the Commission will be January 15, 1992, 7:00PM at City Hall. Prioritize the projects and getting Kirk started will be on the agenda.
