

MINUTES OF COMMISSION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE
January 15, 1992 - 7:00pm

ATTENDING: Sandra Brown, Mary Buss, Vic Crumbaker, Ann Sanders, Allison Sarmo, Julie Schroeder-Wright, and Brenda Swille.

AGENDA 1: Prioritize project for 1992 and assign specific contact people for each project.

1. Update inventory of arts and cultural organizations.
-Allison Sarmo
2. Compile a directory and brochure of arts education opportunities.
-Mary Buss, Ann Sanders
3. Report on the economic benefits of the arts to the community.
-Allison Sarmo, Vic Crumbaker
4. Design a process for compiling information of scheduled cultural events.
-Julie Schroeder-Wright, Larry Mazzeno
5. Compile a sourcebook listing local artists.
-Sandra Brown
6. Report on methods of public funding for the arts.
-Allison Sarmo, Sandra Brown
7. One-day workshop for local artists on professional development.
-Michael Smedley

Other projects the Commission will be responsible for are:

- Develop criteria for determining City expenditures for arts.
Steve Laiche, Larry Mazzeno, and Sandra Brown
- Complete a comprehensive cultural facilities feasibility study.
Sandra Brown
- Encourage arts organizations to develop art education for kids.
- Summer arts festival.
Ann Sanders
- Annual round-table forum of all arts organization.
- Complete publicservice announcements (general andevent oriented)
Larry Mazzeno and Mary Buss

AGENDA 2: Discuss projects and contracted services with new consultant.

It was decided that $7,000 would be the sum paid to Kirk McConnell for his services as the consultant with $1,000 of that paid up front for updating his computer. The remainder of the $6,000 would be paid in 10% increments as portions of the projects are completed.

The next scheduled meeting for the Commission will be February 12, 1992 - 7:00pm at City Hall.