Proclamation

Whereas, for more than 28 years, HopeWest has been Grand Junction's community-owned, nonprofit organization where people turn when facing life's most difficult times; and

Whereas, as a nationally recognized hospice, palliative care, adult bereavement, and children's bereavement program, HopeWest provides care to more than 3,000 individuals each year; and

Whereas, with every year, the need for HopeWest services are growing; and every citizen can play a role in helping their neighbors by supporting the mission of HopeWest through volunteer service and financial support; and

Whereas, this public declaration celebrates our community's unique spirit of helping each other every day and honors the compassion of the many nursing assistants, social workers, chaplains, physicians, counselors, registered nurses, and volunteers at HopeWest; and

Whereas, Hospice and Palliative Care Month presents a unique opportunity to increase awareness of these programs and honor all who make them possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.E. Duke Wortmann, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim November 2020 as in the City of Grand Junction and ask that the City Council encourage the support and participation of friends, neighbors, colleagues and fellow citizens in hospice activities and programs now and throughout the year.

"Hospice and Palliative Care Month"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 29th day of October, 2020.

C.E. Duke Wortmann
