It is not that she believes they are unwilling, just they don't understand, there is just a lack of basic food safety knowledge. City Attorney Shaver suggested along with Hearing Officer Grattan they need to designate a consistent interpreter. Ms. Harris the Landlord was present to help interpret along with her husband Jerry Harris for Ms. Huang.

Hearing Officer Grattan said due to the type of issues, this will be continued until June 19, 2013 and he asked Ms. Mull if she is comfortable with that. She agreed.

There will be two uniformed Moose Lodge officers and two State certified security guards. City Attorney Shaver asked how the alcohol service will be controlled. Mr. Tobin said they will use wrist bands on the people who are of age to drink alcohol. City Attorney Shaver asked who will be checking the identification. Mr. Tobin said it will be the people at the door as well as the bartenders. City Attorney Shaver asked if those people at the door will have received specific instructions from him or others pertaining to the alcohol service laws of the State of Colorado. Mr. Tobin said yes.

Ms. Roybal said they were paid an hourly rate and her boss said he was going to give them gift cards also but she wasn't sure if that happened.

Ms. Roybal said that the neighborhood around the restaurant contains a lot of rentals for CMU students and they found a lot had already left for the year. He asked about the 19 for businesses which he thought was a sparse number. Ms. Roybal explained they were given short notice to conduct the survey from her boss, that they did it in one day.

City Attorney Shaver asked Ms. Roybal if there were attempts made to go back to any of the residents or businesses. She said no.

Hearing Officer Grattan said there is no opposition to the application present and he feels due to the long standing and history of the establishment which has always had alcohol just a different type of license, he approved the Beer and Wine liquor license.
