Shortly after received it I started working through it.

When I came to the part where it was asking whose name the license was filed in I could not remember. Being the weekend I set it aside to contact the city clerks office during business hours.

I really did set it aside, Family came Soz a visit, I also feel ill.

In the early early morning hours of the 26th of August I woke remembering I set it aside. That same morning when the city clerks office opened at 7:30 AM I was there asking the questions I still needed answered AND Siling the forms with Janet
