

City of Grand Junction, State of Colorado

Proclamation

Whereas, the nation's 120,000 nonprofit arts organizations, the National Endowment for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the nation's 4,500 local arts agencies, and the arts and humanities councils of the 50 states and the six U.S. jurisdictions have regularly issued official proclamations on an annual basis designating October as National Arts and Humanities Month; and

Whereas, the arts and humanities embody much of the accumulated wisdom, intellect, and imagination of humankind while enhancing and enriching American lives by playing a unique role to our families, communities and country; and

Whereas, Grand Junction, Colorado, through their local and state arts agencies and representing thousands of cultural organizations, have celebrated the value and importance of culture in the lives of Americans and the health of thriving communities during National Arts and Humanities Month for several years; and

Whereas, the humanities help diverse communities across the United States explore their history and culture with the support and partnership of the National Endowment for the Humanities, the 50 state and 6 territorial humanities councils, and local educational and cultural institutions; and

Whereas, the nation's arts and culture sector—nonprofit, commercial, education—is a $919.7 billion industry that supports 5.2 million jobs—4.3% of the nation's economy—and boasts a $33 billion international trade surplus; and

Whereas, the nonprofit arts industry alone generates $166.3 billion in economic activity annually which supports 4.6 million jobs and generates $27.5 billion in government revenue.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anna Stout, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim October 2022 as in the City of Grand Junction and call upon our citizens to celebrate and promote arts and culture and encourage greater participation for the arts and humanities in Grand Junction.

"National Arts and Humanities Month"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 19th day of October 2022.

Mayor
