

City of Grand Junction, State of Colorado

Proclamation

Whereas, This March, we celebrate American Red Cross Month by recognizing the compassionate acts of people in the City of Grand Junction and by renewing our commitment to lend a helping hand to our neighbors in need. Since Clara Barton founded the American Red Cross more than 140 years ago, generation after generation has stepped up to deliver relief and care across our country and around the world, bringing out the best of humanity in times of crisis. Advancing this noble mission, the volunteers and supporters who now give back through the Western Colorado Chapter remain unwavering in their commitment to prevent and alleviate human suffering in the face of today's emergencies; and

Whereas, Their voluntary and generous contributions shine a beacon of hope in people's darkest hours whether it's delivering shelter, food and comfort during disasters, supporting service members, veterans and their families or saving lives with first aid, CPR, AED and other skills; and

Whereas, This work to uplift our community is truly made possible by those who selflessly answer the call to help, whenever and wherever it's needed. We hereby recognize this month of March in honor of their remarkable service, and we ask everyone to join in their commitment to care for one another; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Abram Herman, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim March 2025 as in the City of Grand Junction and encourage all community members of Grand Junction to reach out and support its humanitarian mission.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 19th day of March 2025.
