AGREEMENT ON EXCHANGE OF SALES AND USE TAX

Pursuant to the provisions of 29-2-106(6), C.R.S. 1973, as amended, which allows the Executive Director of the Department of Revenue, in his discretion, to exchange information with the proper official of any home rule city concerning licensed vendors within the jurisdiction of the home rule city, and for the purpose of obtaining such confidential data, the City of Grand Junction (Municipality) by its proper official, promises and agrees to safeguard all confidential information received from the Department of Revenue as follows:

- (1) To continually maintain a secure place in which such information will be stored.
- (2) To keep adequate records of what confidential information is received and the disposition thereof.
- (3) No information obtained pursuant to this Agreement shall be disclosed to any person not authorized to receive such information by the laws of the undersigned municipality.
- (4) To restrict access to such information to persons whose duties and responsibilities require such access.
- (5) The information obtained pursuant to this Agreement shall be used only for the purpose of administration, and enforcement of the sales and/or use tax laws of the undersigned municipality.
- (6) To allow the Department of Revenue to review the adequacy of the safeguard measures established hereunder.

It is understood and agreed that if any of these safeguard provisions are violated, the Department may refuse to furnish any additional information concerning status of vendors' accounts.

The undersigned official hereby affirms that he or she is the proper official charged with the administration of the sales and use tax laws of the municipality.

Dated this 7th day of July (month) 1999 (year).
