Ballot Title and Text:

CITY OF GRAND JUNCTION BALLOT ISSUE A:

SHALL THE CITY OF GRAND JUNCTION, COLORADO, WITHOUT ANY INCREASE IN TAXES, BE AUTHORIZED TO RETAIN ALL REVENUES IN EXCESS OF AMOUNTS WHICH THE CITY IS PERMITTED TO SPEND UNDER ARTICLE X, SECTION 20 (TABOR) OF THE COLORADO CONSTITUTION FOR 2006 AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS UNTIL THE RIVERSIDE PARKWAY BONDED DEBT IS PAID IN FULL, WITH ALL AMOUNTS RETAINED TO BE USED FOR PAYMENT OF THE RIVERSIDE PARKWAY BONDED DEBT?

Summary of Written Comments FOR Ballot Issue A:

The City of Grand Junction has been fortunate to benefit from a growing population and an even faster growing economy. The growth of that economy has led the City to exceed the spending limit set by the Tabor Amendment. In accordance with Tabor, the City is asking the voters to keep the funding collected above the Tabor limit to help pay off the Riverside Parkway Bonds. The Riverside Parkway was a needed transportation improvement and bonds for the project were issued for $80 million. Just like a home mortgage, however, those bonds have interest charges which over twenty years will make the total repayment of the loan close to $140 million.

A "yes" vote on this question will allow the City to add money above the Tabor limit to the amounts that have already been budgeted and will lead to an earlier payment of the bonds. That could save the City substantial interest costs. A resolution adopted by the City Council at the same time this measure was referred to the voters clearly states that these funds, along with budgeted funds and any interest that accrues will be accounted for separately. With that in place, the voters can be assured that these funds will be used for only the purpose of paying off the bonds. They can even check on the balance periodically if they choose.

Once sufficient funding has been set aside to pay for the Riverside Parkway bonds, the Tabor limit is restored and the City will not be allowed to keep revenues above the limit. With no way of predicting what will happen to our economy over several years there is no way to predict today when this Tabor "override", along with budgeted City funds and interest will be sufficient to pay off the City debt. But once that number is reached, the Tabor limit is fully restored in the City of Grand Junction.

In summary, the voters have a unique opportunity to take advantage of good economic times to be fiscally responsible and pay off City debt without raising taxes. Vote yes to help pay down the debt.

Summary of Written Comments FOR Ballot Issue F:

In 1977 the City Council of Grand Junction established the Downtown Development Authority (DDA) to stem blight and depreciation of land values in the downtown area through capital improvement projects.

These projects are required to be financed by the issuance of debt. That debt is repaid by the pledge and collection of a portion of the property taxes and City sales taxes collected in the DDA. Those taxes are known as the Tax Increment Fund (TIF). The TIF was extended with the passage of ballot Issue 5T in 2004 and will now sunset in 2011.

Ballot Issue 'F' asks if the City of Grand Junction debt may be increased $18,000,000 with a repayment cost of up to $20,000,000 without raising additional taxes, to finance streets, parks, plazas, parking facilities, playgrounds, capital facilities, pedestrian malls, rights-of-way, structures, waterways, bridges, access routes, etc. This debt may be in the form of bonds, loans, advances or indebtedness.

If approved this measure will authorize the issuance of debt to be repaid by the TIF extension approved in 2004, and replace the language approved in 2004 regarding the issuance of debt.

Only downtown residents, landowners or lessees within the DDA boundaries are eligible electors.

Summary of Written Comments AGAINST Ballot Issue F:

No comments were filed by the constitutional deadline.
