W. S. Wallare. introduced the following resolution to-wit
Be it Resolved, That in view of the present financial condition of the community, that the present saloon license as now collected works a hardship upon the persons engaged in that business, and that it is therefore the sense of this body, that the license for the next six months shall be collected monthly, and the City Treasurer is hereby instructed to issue his duplicate receipts for $835 dollars each month, to parties now holding saloon privileges; and the City Clerk shall issue a license when the total amount of the receipts, filed in his office, equal the total amount of the license fee due from such party. Upon a yeas & nays vote the above resolution was unanimously adopted.

On motion City Council adjourned
