

Grand Junction, Colo., May 27, 1910.

Adjourned
Session

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened, pursuant to adjournment, in the City Hall, at 4 o'clock p.m., with Mayor Todd in the chair.

Roll Call

Upon call of roll, the following Commissioners responded as present: Todd, Vedder, Vorbeck, Scovill, Holmburg.

Reported
favorably

Upon the application of C. R. Robinson for a license to carry on the business of plumbing in this city, the Commissioner of Water and Sewers, to whom said petition had been referred, reported favorably and recommended that a license be granted.

Moved by Commissioner Vedder and seconded by Commissioner Scovill, that C. R. Robinson be granted a license to carry on the business of plumbing in this city when his bond has been approved by the City Attorney.

Motion
Carried

The motion being put, upon call of roll the Commissioners voted as follows: Todd, yea; Vedder, yea; Vorbeck, yea; Scovill, yea; Holmburg, yea. All the Commissioners having voted yea, the Mayor declared the motion carried.

Upon the communication of the Trades and Labor Assembly, recommending the adoption of an ordinance regulating the operation of street cars in this city, the Commissioner of Public Affairs, to whom said communication had been previously referred, reported favorably and recommended the adoption of an ordinance along the lines suggested in said communication.

Reported
favorably

Moved by Commissioner Vorbeck and seconded by Commissioner Vedder that the report be accepted and that the City Attorney be instructed to frame an ordinance to regulate the operating of street cars in this city along the lines suggested in the communication of the Trades and Labor Assembly.

Motion
Carried

The motion being put, each Commissioner, as his name was called, voted as follows: Todd, yea; Vedder, yea; Vorbeck, yea; Scovill, yea; Holmburg, yea. All the Commissioners having voted yea, the Mayor declared the motion carried.

Adjourn. next.

On motion of Commissioner Vorbeck, seconded by Commissioner Holmberg, the Council adjourned.

Charles K. Holmberg,
City Clerk.
