

Grand Junction, Colorado, November 9, 1911

Adjourned
session

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened in regular adjourned session at 8:30 o'clock a.m., in the City Hall, with Mayor Todd in the chair, and proceeded to canvass the vote cast at the last regular municipal election, John W. Hill and Joseph P. Sweeney, justices of the peace, and R. L. Magill, notary public, taking the place of Commissioners Vorbeck, Scovill and Holmberg, as per order of Council.

Adjournment

After the canvass of the vote had been completed, the Council adjourned until to-morrow, November 10th, at 4 o'clock p.m.

Charles K. Holmberg
City Clerk