

Grand Junction, Colorado, April 2, 1913.

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened in adjourned session at 4 o'clock p. m., in the City Hall, with Mayer Todd in the chair.

The following Commissioners, upon call of roll, responded as present: Todd, Vedder, Verbeck, Rankin, Helmburg.

The following resolution was introduced and read:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, the following water rates seem to be excessive for the following reasons:

G. W. Schlatter, Orchard Mesa, water outlet about half mile from house;
A. T. Perkins, Orchard Mesa, water outlet about half mile from house;
V. W. S. Cox, Orchard Mesa, water outlet about half mile from house;
Barn of J. W. Milne, at 260 Colorado avenue, only used for about two or three horses, and mostly for storage; and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of this Council that under the conditions as they exist, the just rate should be as follows: On the three places specified on Orchard Mesa, $11.50 per annum, and on the barn of J. W. Milne at 260 Colorado avenue, $40.00 per annum; be it, therefore,

RESOLVED, that the Commissioner of Finance and Supplies be authorized and instructed to make rates as above on the places above mentioned.

Moved by Commissioner Vedder, seconded by Commissioner Rankin, that the resolution as read be passed and adopted.

The motion being put, upon call of roll, the Commissioners voted as follows: Todd, yea; Vedder, yea; Verbeck, yea; Rankin, yea; Helmburg, yea.

All the Commissioners having voted yea, the Mayor declared the motion carried and the resolution passed and adopted.

The following resolution was introduced and read:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, it is desirable to sell and dispose of the two water pumps now owned by the city, and several inquiries have been made asking the Council to fix a price for which same will be sold, and
