

Grand Junction, Colorado, January 13, 1913.

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened in special session, in the City Hall, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., with Mayer Todd in the chair.

The following Commissioners, upon call of roll, responded as present: Todd, Vedder, Verbeck, Rankin, Helmburg.

Mayer Todd stated that the purpose of this special meeting was for the Council to act as a Board of Health, and to discuss the case of S. G. Frye, who is said to have small pox.

Doctor Carl W. Plumb, City Health Officer, was present and stated that he had been called by Doctor Reed to examine S. G. Frye, who rooms at the building known as the Antlers, between 7th and 8th streets on Main street of said city, the said building being a rooming house, occupied by a number of roomers.; that in his opinion the said S. G. Frye was sick with smallpox. That Doctor Chas. S. Needham had visited said S. G. Frye also, and had given as his opinion that said S. G. Frye was sick with smallpox. Doctor Plumb further stated that in his opinion said S. G. Frye should be removed to Red Mesa Hospital; that he could be removed without danger to his health.

The following resolution was thereupon introduced by Commissioner Holmburg, and read to the Council:

WHEREAS, it appeared to the Council that one S. G. Frye is now sick with smallpox in a rooming house within the City of Grand Junction, Colorado; that he is likely to communicate said disease to other people unless removed from location; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the City Council, sitting as a Board of Health, City of Grand Junction, hereby orders that the safety of the inhabitants of the said city requires that said S. G. Frye be removed to the Red Mesa Hospital and that he be there provided with a nurse and such other assistance as may be necessary; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the City Physician and the City Attorney are hereby ordered to take necessary steps to carry this resolution into effect.

Moved by Commissioner Holmburg, seconded by Commissioner Vedder, that the resolution as read be passed and adopted.

The motion being put, upon call of roll, the Commissioners voted as follows: Todd, yea; Vedder, yea; Verbeck, yea; Rankin, yea, yea; Holmburg, yea.

All the Commissioners having voted yea, the Mayor declared the resolution passed and adopted.

On motion of Com'r Verbeck, seconded by Commissioner Rankin, the Council then adjourned.

Charles K. Holmburg

City Clerk.
