

Grand Junction, Colorado, November 11, 1913.

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened in regular adjourned session at 10 o'clock a. m., in the City Hall, with Mayor Todd in the chair.

The following Commissioners, upon call of roll, responded as present: Todd, Vedder, Verbeck, Rankin, Holmburg.

City Attorney Tupper was present.

The official bonds of Chas. E. Cherrington, Commissioner-elect of Public Affairs, and Frank L. Carson, Commissioner-elect of Water and Sewers, having been examined and approved by the City Attorney, it was moved by Commissioner Holmburg, seconded by Commissioner Verbeck, that the bonds be accepted and ordered placed on file.

The motion carried, and it was so ordered.

The report of the Judge of the Municipal Court for the period from October 1st, to November 11, 1913, was submitted and read, and on motion of Commissioner Verbeck, seconded by Commissioner Rankin, the report was received and referred to the auditor.

The following Commissioners-elect being present, now each and separately took the oath of office, the same being administered by City Attorney Tupper, as Notary Public;

Chas. E. Cherrington, Commissioner of Public Affairs.

Frank L. Carson, Commissioner of Water and Sewers.

The minutes of the regular meeting of November 4th and adjourned sessions of November 6th and 11th were read and approved.

Moved by Commissioner Holmburg, seconded by Commissioner Verbeck, that the Council adjourn,

The motion carried, and the Council then adjourned.
