

Grand Junction, Colorado, February 10, 1914.

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened in regular session at four o'clock, p. m., in the City Hall, with Mayer Cherrington in the chair.

The following Commissioners, upon call of roll, responded as present: Cherrington, Verbeck, Rankin, Carson, Helmburg.

City Attorney Tupper was present.

The minutes of the regular meeting of February 3rd and adjourned session of February 6th were read and approved.

Messrs. Page, Zellars, Smith and other residents of Orchard Mesa appeared before the Council in reference to the use of the City trenching machine.

Moved by Commissioner Verbeck, seconded by Commissioner Rankin, that a charge of $15.00 per day be made by the City for use of the trenching machine for actual time used, including the 10 1-2 days already used; provided, however, if machine is returned to the city on or before February 24th, the rate shall be reduced to $10.00 per day for actual time used.

The motion being put, each Commissioner as his name was called, voted as follows: Cherrington, yea; Verbeck, yea; Rankin, yea; Carson, yea; Helmburg, yea.

All the Commissioners having voted yea, the Mayor declared the motion carried.

On motion of Commissioner Carson, seconded by Commissioner Helmburg, the Council adjourned.

Charles K. Helmburg

City Clerk.
