

AN ORDINANCE.

AN ORDINANCE CONCERNING LICENSES.

Be it Ordained by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Grand Junction:

SECTION 1. The amount which shall be paid to the Town Treasurer as license fee by applicants for liquor licenses shall be as follows, to-wit:

For retail liquor license, four hundred dollars per annum.

For wholesale liquor license, fifty dollars per annum.

SEC. 2. A retail liquor license shall only be issued when a written application is made therefor by the applicant, stating particularly the place where such business is to be carried on, and accompanied by a petition to the Board of Trustees, subscribed by the owners of a majority of the lots on both sides of the street, for the distance of one block, in the vicinity of such place, and also by a majority in number of the bona fide occupants of lots and buildings, for a like distance in such vicinity, requesting that a license be issued to the person named, to do a retail liquor business at the place stated: Provided, that dealers who have already received such license shall not be required to obtain such petition to continue business at their present location.

SEC. 3. All persons to whom either wholesale or retail liquor licenses shall be granted; shall post the said license in some conspicuous place, in the room or place for which the said license has been granted. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed to work a forfeiture of the license granted, and the party so failing to post such license shall on conviction be fined not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 4. A retail liquor license shall authorize the licensee to sell intoxicating liquors in any quantities less than five gallons, but shall not authorize the sale of such liquors to minors or habitual drunkards. A wholesale liquor license shall authorize the licensee to sell such liquors in any quantities not less than one quart; but such liquor so sold shall not be drunk upon the premises where sold.

SEC. 5. If any person shall transact, carry on, pursue or engage in, the business of retail vendor of intoxicating liquors, or shall sell or give away to any person, any intoxicating liquors in any quantity less than one quart, without having first obtained a license therefor, such person shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars.

SEC. 6. If any person shall transact, carry on, pursue or engage in the business of wholesale vendor of intoxicating liquors, or shall sell or give away to any person any intoxicating liquors in quantities of one quart or more, without having first obtained a license therefor, such person shall on conviction be fined not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 7. If any person, not having a retail liquor license shall sell or give away any intoxicating liquors in any quantities to any person to be drunk upon the premises where sold, or given away, or shall allow any such liquors so sold or given away, to be drunk upon said premises, such person shall on conviction be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars.

SEC. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Passed by the Board of Trustees this 14th day of September, A. D. 1885.
