Ms. Peterson reported the paperwork is in order and the only report checked is sales tax and it is in compliance.

Hearing Officer Grattan approved the renewal of the Art Gallery Permit for The Raw Canvas, LLC dba The Raw Canvas.

III. APPLICATION FOR A TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP

1. Red Lobster Restaurants LLC dba Red Lobster #0685, 575 24 ½ Road, Grand Junction, CO 81505, transferring from GMRI, Inc., dba Red Lobster #685, Hotel and Restaurant – Master File in Denver

Change in Corporate Structure removal of two officers from the LLC and a new Master File letter from the State

Mr. Brian Proffitt, Partner, with Foster, Graham, Milstein & Calisher, LLP (FGMC) counsel #3101, was present along with Ms. Robin Klauer, general manager for Red Lobster #0685.

Ms. Peterson reported that the paperwork is in order and they have been issued a temporary permit. All the reports are in compliance, the notice was posted on the premise, and the premise matches the diagram submitted. Since this was submitted, the applicant has a change in corporate structure. The change has been made to the Master File in Denver.

Mr. Proffitt explained that Darden Restaurants has sold the Red Lobsters but the local staff will be the same. At the time of the closing, two of the officers resigned which has brought the change in corporate structure forward. There is a new master file letter from the State.

Hearing Officer Grattan approved the transfer of ownership from GMRI Inc. to Red Lobster Restaurants LLC and the change in corporate structure for Red Lobster Restaurant LLC.

IV. APPLICATIONS FOR A SPECIAL EVENTS PERMIT

Hearing Officer Grattan announced that he was changing the order of the applications for Special Events permits to hear the Elks' application first.

1. Grand Junction Elks Home Association dba BPO Elks #575, PO Box 1987, Grand Junction, CO 81502 for "Oktoberfest 2014", on October 4, 2014 from 11:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. located a ½ block north of Main Street on 4th Avenue, Grand Junction, CO 81501, Malt and Vinous

Sec. and Event Manager: Edward W. Crilly, 511 Crawford Ln., Palisade CO 81526

Mr. Ed Crilly, secretary and event manager, was present.

Ms. Peterson reported the paperwork is in order, all the reports are in compliance, and the notice was posted.

Hearing Officer Grattan said Ms. Peterson forward him a report from last year but was not tied to Oktoberfest but to the Snowflake Lounge which is no longer in business.

City Attorney Shaver handed Mr. Crilly sheets marked with an "A" in the right hand corner. City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Crilly if he was familiar with this document. Mr. Crilly said he was as he completed these. City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Crilly whose signature was on the second page of Exhibit A. He said it was his. City Attorney Shaver said on page 1, the spelling of Oktoberfest has been crossed out and re-written and asked if he had done this. Mr. Crilly said he did not. Ms. Peterson said she corrected this to be spelled as it has been in all the years past. City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Crilly how many years the Elks has been hosting Oktoberfest. Mr. Crilly said 33 years and he has been associated with the Elks the entire time.

Mr. Crilly presented City Attorney Shaver a document given to the Elks from the insurance provider for responsible beverage service. Mr. Crilly said he has given this out as a refresher to the members who will be working this event.

City Attorney Shaver presented Mr. Crilly with a document marked with a B in the upper corner and asked him to describe this document. Mr. Crilly said it is the diagram presented with the application. The red lined area indicated the beer garden area. Mr. Crilly said the security hired (Lone Star) will provide 2 persons, one to check ID's and one as a rover within the perimeter. This will be the first time they have had two entrances, and it is off Main Street, and they will be checking ID's at both locations at all times. Mr. Crilly said one must purchase tokens from the cashier to purchase the beer. All areas will be constantly staffed with Elks members. Mr. Crilly said they will have everything removed by 10:00 p.m.

There was no one present in opposition of the application.

Hearing Officer Grattan admitted Exhibits A, B, and C (the responsible beverage service document) into the record (attached) and found that pursuant to Colorado State Statutes 12-48-106, there are no grounds to deny the special events permit, it would not be injurious to the public welfare because of the nature of the special event (it is an annual event held each year with no problems in the past), its location within the community, or the failure of the applicant in a past special event to conduct the event in compliance with applicable law. He found that the application for a special events permit submitted by Grand Junction Elks Home Association was in order and approved it.

2. Grand Junction Lodge No. 270 dba Loyal Order of Moose, 567 25 ½ Road, Grand Junction, CO 81505 for "Cattails and Cocktails Gala", on October 11, 2014 from 5:30 p.m. to 11:50 p.m. at 567 25 ½ Road, Grand Junction CO 81505, Malt, Vinous, and Spirituous

Sec./Administrator: George Fuoco, 612 Grand Valley Drive, Grand Junction CO 81504

Mr. George Fuoco, officer, was present.

Ms. Peterson reported the paperwork is in order, all the reports are in compliance, and the notice was posted. Ms. Peterson reported that at the last special event permit for the Moose Lodge which was a Quinceañera on August 16, 2014. There was an incident where the police were called. Ms. Meghan Woodland, Grand Junction Police Department, forwarded that report to the City Clerk's office and Ms. Peterson forwarded it to the Hearing Officer and City Attorney. Hearing Officer Grattan said after review, the memorandum has caused him concern if it is true.

City Attorney Shaver presented Mr. Fuoco with a document with an A in the upper corner and asked him if he has personal knowledge of this document. Mr. Fuoco said yes, that he completed it. The only item wrong is the City sales tax number on the document. City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Fuoco to describe the event. Mr. Fuoco said this is the first time the Lodge will be hosting the cat rescue event for Cat's League and Assistance of the Western Slope (CLAWS). CLAWS is the largest cat-only shelter between Denver and Salt Lake City; it is for homeless cats until they find them a home. City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Fuoco how many they anticipate at this event. Mr. Fuoco responded that he guessed 200. Currently they have only sold about 40 tickets.

City Attorney Shaver said he would like to talk about the report presented by Officer Naik on the event of August 16, 2014. Mr. Fuoco presented a contact that he signed with T.F.S. Security which said they would have 3 security people there. At the event, he only had two and his 14 year old son. Mr. Fuoco said this company would not be doing security for the Moose Lodge in the future. Mr. Fuoco said he spoke with the couple who rented the hall and they said they did not know some of the folks. He estimated there were about 200 persons inside and 200 outside in the parking lot. City Attorney Shaver said from the report he is concerned about the subjects visibly stumbling as they were walking to their vehicles and where Officer Naik noticed several who appeared to be visibly intoxicated and appeared under 21 years of age.

City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Fuoco about question 6 on the questionnaire that indicated T.F.S. would be the security at the CLAWS event. Mr. Fuoco said that he has not secured a new company but could by the end of the week.

City Attorney Shaver asked Mr. Fuoco to look at the document marked with a B in the upper right corner and describe this area. Mr. Fuoco said this is the Lodge and the event will take place in the red outlined area. Mr. Fuoco said they are required to have an area available to Lodge members at all times which is indicated by an SQ (Social Quarters) on the diagram which will not be included in this special event permit.

There was no one present in opposition to the application.

Hearing Officer Grattan admitted Exhibits A, B, and C (the Police Report) into the record (attached) and found that pursuant to Colorado State Statutes 12-48-106, the special events permit would not be injurious to the public welfare because of the nature of the special event (fundraiser for cat rescue), its location within the community is appropriate, however the failure of the applicant in a past special event to conduct the event in compliance with applicable law causes some concern based on the last event. He believes Mr. Fuoco when he says he will have a new security company lined out by Friday, October 3, 2014 at 5:00. He asked that this be turned into the City Clerk's office and he will approve the application for a special events permit submitted by Loyal Order of Moose conditionally until this is completed since there isn't another meeting before this event.

V. REVIEW AND AUTHORIZE STIPULATION, AGREEMENT AND ORDER

1. JJ's Cruisers, LLC dba Cruisers, 715 Horizon Drive, Suite 100, Grand Junction, CO 81506, Tavern – Also 60 day Review

Mr. James Hadrath and Mr. Jon U-Ren, owners of Cruisers were present.

Ms. Peterson gave City Attorney Shaver and Hearing Officer Grattan a report from Meghan Woodland right before the meeting for the 60 day review. Hearing Officer Grattan said he read it and reviewed it and will accept it into the record as Exhibit A (see attached). This is how he would like to see all the reviews from now on, there were only 3 items on the report.

Jamie Beard, Assistant City Attorney, said all parties are in agreement with the Stipulation, Agreement, and Order, and they met on July 18, and August 8, 2014. Mr. Hadrath and Mr. U-Ren, the Licensees, are not contesting the violations. The Licensee and the City agree that the Licensee is allowed to pay a fine in lieu of active suspension in accordance with 12-47-601(3) C.R.S. A check has been submitted to the City Clerk's office in the amount of $1,146.82.

The City and the Licensee agree as follows:

- 1) On or about October 4, 2013, the Licensee did not notify the Grand Junction Police Department of disorderly conduct that took place on the premises. Brian Medina made an offer to gamble inside the premises to other patrons of the establishment and/or used abusive language with other patrons in the establishment. The bar manager Jude Morkus removed Brian Medina from the inside of the bar. A fight occurred just outside the bar between Brian Medina and Chad Morris with both men wrestling on the ground. The fight was observed by Jude Morkus and another employee of Cruisers, Elizabeth Smallwood. The licensee violated §5.12.250 GJMC.
- 2) On or about March 2, 2014, the Licensee through its employee(s) did serve alcoholic beverages to Jon U-Ren (owner) while on the premises and he was visibly intoxicated while on the premises. The incident of giving alcohol to a person who is visibly intoxicated is a violation of §12-47-901 (1) (a), C.R.S.

The Licensee has mitigated the conduct of the licensed premises to include that all employees are required to do the Alcohol Server Responsibility Training, staff has been advised they may deny service to anyone, training will occur on a regular basis, and a log is kept by employees regarding any incidents and reviewed by the member, Jon U-Ren, the next day.

The Hearing Officer entered the Stipulation, Agreement, and Order into the record and asked Deputy City Clerk Peterson to submit the Certificate of Mailing.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS

1. MZ Entertainment, dba Thunderstruck Valley, 436 Main Street, Grand Junction, CO 81501, Tavern – Review

Mr. John Pfeifer, counsel for Thunderstruck Valley and Mr. Mark Towner, one of the owners, were present.

Hearing Officer Grattan started by saying he observed out front of Thunderstruck Valley an employee checking ID's with a machine and doing this very professionally. Mr. Towner elaborated on this that the machine is not only used to check age, but also to check if the patron has been added to the tavern's "86'd" list of persons who are not allowed into the establishment, and law enforcement has even used it if they are looking for anyone to see if they have been in the establishment.

Ms. Peterson reported that a final certificate of occupancy (CO) has been issued for the hood unit and all of the items pending are in compliance for the license.

Hearing Officer Grattan said his concern was all the calls for service since the time of opening to the point of violating the law.

Ms. DeLayne Merritt, Staff Attorney for the City, has been sent a list of items for review and there has been two alleged items identified as reasons for a Notice to Show Cause, and she understands there could be additional matters coming forward. Ms. Merritt said these have been sent to Mr. Pfeifer for review. She is waiting to have a signed agreement. Ms. Woodland has another person to interview for one of the incidents.

Mr. Pfeifer said he isn't sure he can be ready with a response and the temporary license is coming to an end on November 10th. He asked Hearing Officer Grattan that since the hood issue has been resolved and that was the only hold up on issuing the permanent license, can it be granted. Hearing Officer Grattan said he could, but he isn't going to, until he knows what these allegations are.

Ms. Merritt said there is a question regarding the ownership of the establishment and that does affect how she presents the Stipulation, Agreement, and Order and to whom it is issued to.

Mr. Pfeifer said he can get that paperwork to the City Clerk's office. Ms. Peterson said that change will also come before the Authority.

After a general discussion between Mr. Pfeifer, Ms. Merritt, Ms. Woodland, City Attorney Shaver, and Hearing Officer Grattan regarding logistics, it was agreed to address these on November 5th. If a hearing is needed on the alleged violations, it would begin at 8:00 a.m. on November 5th. There are four issues which will be addressed at the hearing. They are the alleged actions of July 26 and August 10, 2014 identified in the City's Notice to Show Cause; the alleged violations concerning the ownership of Thunderstruck Valley, and the conversion of the temporary license into a permanent license. If an agreement on the alleged violation is agreed upon, the other issues will be on the Authority's regular agenda that day for 2:00 p.m. Hearing Officer Grattan said for Ms. Woodland to have her report by October 17th; he told Mr. Pfeifer if he chooses to file a written response to do so by October 29, 2014.

All parties were in agreement to this time frame.

Section I

Laws and Liability

Civil Liability

Civil liability allows individuals to bring civil suits against licensees, their employees or any person who sells or serves alcohol illegally when personal injury or property damage has occurred anywhere in the state.

Compensatory damages can include damages to personal property, lost wages and medical costs.

Punitive damages are sometimes awarded to punish the offender.

Between the two types, awards can range from a few hundred to several million dollars.

Civil suits are heard through a local court.

Criminal Liability

Criminal liability addresses fines and/or jail time that bartenders, servers or sellers of alcohol might face if prosecuted for illegal alcohol sales or service.

Criminal liability is dealt with at a District Court level of justice. While a civil suit typically carries a monetary judgment, the result of a criminal action can often be jail time. The outcome of a criminal action is not dependent on the outcome of the civil suit for the same instance. Both cases would operate independently of each other.

Avoiding a Lawsuit

The best way to avoid any potential lawsuits surrounding alcoholic beverage service is to a) check identification to ensure your customer is of legal drinking age and b) avoid serving a customer who appears to be inebriated.

Section II

Underage Drinking and Identifications

Underage drinking is most likely to occur at a wedding, a party or any other type of event being held at the Lodge. Be certain to check the ID of anyone that appears to be under thirty (30) years of age. Also keep an eye on the number of drinks that an individual takes away from the bar to ensure that s/he is not supplying those drinks to an underage individual. If you suspect that someone is ordering drinks for someone underage, ask security, one of the servers or another Lodge member in charge to verify where those drinks are going.

Acceptable Types Of Identification

1. State Issued Driver's License
2. State Issued Identification Card
3. Permanent Residency Card
4. Military Identification Card
5. Passport

These are all government issued forms of identification and will have a date of birth and a photo of the bearer. Remember, that if the ID is expired, it is no longer a valid ID.

A State issued Drivers License or ID Card will generally contain a Hologram. Each State's hologram is different.

Hold the presented ID in your hand. Look for any breaks or tears in the laminate, which could be an indication of tampering. Specifically check the photograph; there will be no red-eye in an official photograph and the area of the photograph should not be raised, which would be an indication of tampering as well.

Section III

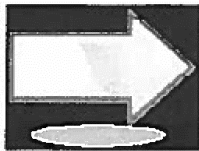

Preventing Over-service

Blood Alcohol Content

A person's BAC (blood alcohol content) increases with each alcoholic beverage consumed in a fixed amount of time. It is important to remember that regardless of a person's disposition, time is the only thing that will sober a person.

Blood alcohol content is measured in 1/1000 (one drop of alcohol per 1000 drops of blood), by either breath testing, urine testing or blood testing. Of the three types of testing, blood testing is the most accurate. Most states regard a BAC of 0.08 percent or higher makes an individual legally intoxicated.

12 OZ. BEER
 12 OZ. WINE COOLER
 5 OZ. GLASS WINE
 1 1/2 OZ. 80 PROOF LIQUOR
 1 OZ. 100 PROOF LIQUOR

All have approximately the same effect on the body and BAC

Absorption

After drinking any alcoholic beverage, approximately 20 percent is absorbed directly through the stomach wall into the bloodstream. The remaining 80 percent enters the bloodstream very rapidly once it reaches the small intestine. Alcohol requires NO digestion. Food in the stomach slows alcohol's progress into the bloodstream. Liquids only dilute the alcohol; they do not slow the progress of absorption.

Absorption Rate Factors

The rate a person absorbs alcohol into the bloodstream depends on several factors. There is no exact formula for determining a person's BAC other than blood tests. You may, however, make a responsible decision on how much alcohol to serve to an individual based on these variables:

GENDER: Women tend to be smaller with higher body fat ratios, hormones, and enzyme dehydrogenase.

SIZE: A small person will reach a higher BAC faster than a large person.

FOOD CONSUMED: Food in the stomach slows the progress of alcohol into the bloodstream.

CONSUMPTION RATE: Fast consumption increases the amount of alcohol circulating in the bloodstream waiting to be processed by the liver.

DRINK CONCENTRATION: Mixers dilute and slow the absorption rate. Carbonation speeds up the absorption by paralyzing the pyloric valve, allowing alcohol to reach the small intestine faster.

TOLERANCE: Drinking experience gives a person the ability to mask signs of a high BAC. Behavior is controlled. Conversely, an inexperienced drinker may not be able to control behavior at all.

MOOD/ HEALTH: Illness, stress, exhaustion can all accelerate the effects of alcohol.

DRUGS: Alcohol can counteract or enhance the effects of other drugs. Combined, the results are unpredictable and dangerous.

Facts are based on findings from Century Council and Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois

The Brain

When alcohol reaches the brain, the frontal lobe is affected first. The frontal lobe controls reasoning and judgment. The alcohol numbs the frontal lobe creating a sense of euphoria. When alcohol is consumed, caution, common sense, reasoning and inhibitions are diminished. You might notice a person becoming talkative, louder, and less inhibited after consuming alcohol.

As the alcohol affects the mid-section of the brain, muscular control, coordination and small motor skills are diminished. You might notice someone having difficulty making change or picking up small objects. Doing simple tasks becomes a challenge. The individual believes that he/she is functioning normally.

The hind section of the brain controls bodily functions like respiration and heart rate. Once this area has been affected by alcohol, the individual will experience a sense of dysphoria. You might notice this person becoming restless, aggressive, anxious or violent. This is caused by an actual overdose of the drug alcohol.

- Even one alcoholic beverage affects judgment and reasoning.
- Alcohol is a depressant.
- Alcohol use kills brain cells. Excessive, long-term use can cause permanent personality changes and memory loss.

The Liver

A healthy liver can eliminate about 1 ounce of alcohol per hour. Approximately 90 percent of the alcohol consumed will be eliminated through the liver. The other 10 percent is eliminated through breathing, sweating and other bodily functions. The liver metabolizes alcohol into sugars. This process requires an enzyme known as alcohol dehydrogenase.

Unprocessed alcohol continues to circulate in the bloodstream until the liver can process it. Cirrhosis of the liver may occur when liver cells die due to long term alcohol consumption. If treated in early stages, the liver has the ability to regenerate itself.

BAC decreases at a rate of 0.015 percent per hour. If four oz. were consumed in one hour, it will take four hours for the body to eliminate that alcohol.

Rationalizing Drinking

Serving drinks in large containers may encourage customers to drink more, counting drinks rather than actual alcohol content. For instance, a large beer may be 22 ounces rather than standard 12 ounces. Use caution when selling multi-liquor drinks such as Long Island iced teas. These may contain four to five ounces of alcohol. Limiting these drinks to one per individual per visit is a good policy to reduce over-consumption.

While most "standard" size drinks contain about one ounce of alcohol, keep in mind that not all beers and wines are created equally. Beers may vary from two and one half percent to eight percent alcohol. Some imported beers and ales contain as much as 14 percent alcohol. Red wines generally contain 13-14 percent while white wines contain 11-12 percent alcohol.

Recognizing Intoxication

No one expects you to know the BAC of someone simply by looking at them. However, the law prohibits selling or serving alcoholic beverages to "to an habitual drunkard or an intoxicated person." Continuing to serve an individual who appears to be intoxicated creates a liability, both criminally and civilly, Intoxication means being under the influence of alcohol and/or other drugs which significantly impairs ability to function. Teamwork and communication is critical to keep the entire staff informed of patrons who require intervention.

Each patron needs to be observed at the time of their arrival for evidence of sobriety. If they are already intoxicated or approaching intoxication, you have the right and the duty to refuse service.

Be aware of the number of drinks a patron has consumed and continue to observe him/her for evidence of intoxication. In the event of a shift change, communicate the status of the patrons to the relieving server.

Common signs of intoxication

Alcohol generally affects the body in the following sequence:

First Stage – Lowered Inhibitions

- Being overly friendly
- Annoying other customers
- Switching from quiet to loud or loud to quiet
- Speaking Loudly
- Acting bold

Second Stage – Judgment

- Argumentative
- Unjustified complaints about service
- Making irrational statements
- Trying to buy items for you or others
- Using foul language
- Being belligerent
- Changing purchase behavior
- Being careless with money

Third Stage – Reactions

- Bloodshot or glassy eyes
- Slurred speech
- Losing train of thought
- Unable to light cigarette

Fourth Stage – Coordination

- Unable to pick up change
- Dropping things
- Unable to find pocket for change
- Swaying, falling
- Stumbling
- Unable to walk straight
- Bumping into things
- Drowsy

Establish a Procedure to Cut-Off Service

It should be made clear to all members that service of alcoholic beverages is a privilege, not a right, and that each member should consume responsibly.

Each Lodge has the right and the duty, for the safety of its members and their guests, to refuse to serve someone approaching intoxication. The Lodge should have a written procedure in place on the steps to take to terminate service to anyone, regardless of their position within the Lodge.

While it should be the responsibility of the manager or person of authority on duty at the time for terminating service, in the absence of either of those, it then becomes the server's responsibility to do so, politely, but firmly. The servers should have assurances that there will be no retaliation should they need to terminate service to a member, regardless of that member's position.

Should a member or guest arrive at the Lodge intoxicated or approaching intoxication, you have the right to refuse to serve them. While they may complain, keep in mind that you may be saving their life or the lives of others.
