

Grand Junction, Colorado
October 4, 1917

Pursuant to adjournment, the City Council of the City of Grand Junction convened at four o'clock p. m., in the City Hall, with Commissioner Rankin, acting Mayor, presiding.

The following Commissioners, upon call of roll, responded as present: Rankin, Vorbeck, Holmburg. Absent: Commissioners Cherrington and Blackstone.

The following resolution was introduced and read:

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, it has pleased the all-wise and infinite God to call from this earth to her eternal rest, Mary L. Cherrington, beloved wife of Mayor Chas. E. Cherrington; be it

RESOLVED, by the City Council of the City of Grand Junction, that in the death of Mrs. Cherrington the community has lost one of its most noble and esteemed women, and the bereaved husband a loving wife and companion, and that we most deeply deplore her sudden and untimely death; and

RESOLVED, that we extend to our fellow Commissioner and President of this Council, Chas. E. Cherrington, our sincere and heartfelt sympathy, assuring him of our affectionate regards and condolence in this his hour of bereavement and sorrow; and be it further

RESOLVED, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the proceedings of this Council.

Moved by Commissioner Holmburg, seconded by Commissioner Vorbeck, that the resolution as read be passed and adopted.

The motion being put, upon call of roll, the Commissioners voted as follows: Rankin, yea; Vorbeck, yea; Holmburg, yea.

All the Commissioners present having voted yea, the motion was declared carried and the resolution passed and adopted.

On motion of Commissioner Holmburg, seconded by Commissioner Vorbeck, the Council adjourned until Saturday, October 6, at 4 o'clock p. m.

/s/ Charles K. Holmburg
City Clerk.
