

February 19, 1921
Grand Junction, Colo.

The Commissioners having been all duly notified, a special meeting was called at 9:00 A.M. with acting Mayor Garber presiding. The following Commissioners were present: Garber, Whittaker, Blackstone, Peck. City Attorney Tupper was also present. Commissioner Cherrington was absent. Mr. Sharer, representing the Grand Junction Town and Development Company, B.C. Fox, Fred Coe, J.H. Rankin, J. Measurers Sterling Lacy, Frank Dean, Charles Adams, Walter Walker, and others were present.

Acting Mayor Garber stated that the purpose of the meeting was to decide what reduction on tax certificates, held by the city, could be made to the Grand Junction Town and Development Company.

After much discussion both pro and con, it was decided to investigate further before rendering a decision.

On motion of Commissioner Whittaker, seconded by Commissioner Peck, the meeting was adjourned.
