

Grand Junction, Colorado.

October 19th, 1926

All the members having been previously notified, the City Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, met in special session at 7:30, P. M. President of the Council Bell presided.

Present and answering to roll call were: Councilmen Logsdon, Bear, Moslander, Meders, Fairley, Bell, and Ellison: City Manager Thompson, City Attorney Hinman and City Clerk Bliss.

President of the Council, Bell, stated the special session had been called for the purpose of considering the question of allowing the street cars to cease operation and allowing motor busses to operate in their place, and for the consideration of the budget for the year 1927.

On motion of Councilman Bear, seconded by Councilman Logsdon, and regularly carried, the Council went into executive session.

After coming out of executive session the budget was discussed, after which, on motion of Councilman Moslander, seconded by Councilman Meders, and duly carried, the Council adjourned.
