

Grand Junction, Colo.

May 2nd, 1927.

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, met in regular adjourned session at 10:00 o'clock A. M. with President Bell presiding. Those present and answering at roll call were Councilmen Ellison, Logsdon, Moslander, Bear, Meders, Fairley, Bell, City Manager Thompson, City Attorney Hinman, and City Clerk Niles.

The minutes of the regular session held April 20th and the adjourned session held April 28th were read and approved.

Councilman Logsdon stated, that "In view of the fact that this administration is just drawing to a close and we are about to adjourn, some of this Council is retiring today and will not be here again in official capacity, I move that we express our appreciation to our City Manager, T. E. Thompson, for his cooperation that he has given us, and for the efficient service he has rendered the City during the two years last past." Councilman Bear seconded the motion, and it carried unanimously.

The minutes of this meeting were read and approved.

Councilman Meders moved, seconded by Councilmen Moslander that the Council adjourn sine die. Motion carried.

/s/ Helen C. Niles
City Clerk