A delegation of second hand dealers were present and protested the raise in price in the license for second hand dealers. Those present were: Messrs. Carpenter, Bond, Brown, Treece, Nelson, and Stein. They also reported that there were several firms doing a second-hand business who were not paying the license. The City Attorney and several members of the Council explained the new ordinance to the dealers, and Mr. Soderstrum was instructed to have the Police check up on all dealers who may owe the license.

The proposed coal ordinance was brought up and discussed, and after discussion, it was decided to defer any action until the next regular meeting.

It was moved by Councilman Ross and seconded by Councilman Hall that the meeting adjourn.
