

Grand Junction, Colorado

May 14, 1936

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, having been duly notified met in special session at 1:30 o'clock P.M. Councilmen present and answering at roll call were: Ross, Holcombe, Boston, Carson, Enstrom, and President Oates. City Clerk Tomlinson and Bruce Brownson, Chief of the Department of Health and Parks were present. City Attorney Bowie and City Manager Soderstrum were absent.

Owing to the necessity for calling a meeting of the Council on short notice, and each member having been duly notified, it was moved by Councilman Holcombe and seconded by Councilman Ross that the provision set forth in Ordinance No. 502 providing that notice be serviced upon the individual Councilman be waived, and that the said call is hereby ratified. All members of the Council voting AYE, the President declared the motion carried.

Mr. King presented a proposal of the Perpetual Memorial Fund Association for attempting to place the Orchard Mesa Cemetery under perpetual care.

It was moved by Councilman Ross and seconded by Councilman Holcombe that the Council consider the proposal item by item. Motion carried.

After the matter had been thoroughly considered and discussed, it was moved by Councilman Ross and seconded by Councilman Holcombe that the contemplated agreement between the City of Grand Junction and the Perpetual Memorial Fund Association, as read and discussed, be approved as a basis for entering into a contract, and this matter be referred to the City Attorney and City Manager for drafting an agreement to be submitted to the City Council for their consideration at its next regular meeting. Motion carried.

A request was made that the President of the City Council make a proclamation that Saturday, May 23rd, would be Poppy Day, and that the usual organizations wished to sell poppies on the streets on that day.

It was moved by Councilman Carson and seconded by Councilman Enstrom that the President of the Council be instructed to sign the usual proclamation for Poppy Day, and that the organizations be allowed to sell their poppies on the streets of the City on Saturday, May 23rd.

The motion was duly made, seconded and carried that the meeting adjourn.
