

Grand Junction, Colorado

February 5, 1941

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, met in regular session at 7:30 o'clock P. M. Councilmen present and answering at roll call were: Robb, Garrison, Campbell, Boston, Carson, Treece, and President Ross. City Manager Brownson, City Attorney Hinman, and City Clerk Tomlinson were present.

The minutes of the regular meeting held January 15th and the regular adjourned meeting held January 22nd, were read and approved.

Liquor store applications were presented for J. E. White and Thos. Yuille at 409 Main Street and Al DeMerschman and C. H. Libby at 202 North Seventh Street.

Rev. Franklin Fenner, representing the Ministerial Alliance and the Christian people of the City, appeared before the Council and protested against the granting of any more liquor licenses.

The Council decided that it would be necessary for them to determine a definite policy on whether they would issue any more licenses, and decided to hold an executive session, and upon motion of Councilman Garrison and seconded by Councilman Robb, and duly carried, adjourned into executive session

After considerable time, the Council again met in regular session with all members of the Council, excepting Councilman Boston present. The City Manager, City Attorney and City Clerk were present.

The following resolution was introduced and read and it was moved by Councilman Robb and seconded by Councilman Campbell that same be passed and adopted. Roll was called on the motion with all members of the Council present voting AYE. The President declared the motion carried.

RESOLUTION

Be It Resolved by the City Council of the City of Grand Junction: That in its opinion, the needs of the community are adequately served by the present liquor licenses and that therefore until further action of the Council, its policy shall be to grant no further liquor licenses, and therefore all pending applications for liquor licenses be denied.

City Manager Brownson was instructed to write to the Secretary of State's office and secure a list of the licenses issued in the State of Colorado, so that the Council may take into consideration the number of licenses granted in other communities throughout the State, in considering whether the needs of this City are sufficiently taken care of.
