

GRAND JUNCTION, COLORADO

May 5, 1947

The newly elected Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, met in regular session at 10 o'clock A. M. Councilmen present and answering at roll call were: Harper, Hoisington, Brown, Boston, Martin, Harris and Carson. Also present were City Manager Fritz and City Clerk Tomlinson.

The new members Councilmen John C. Harper, Alva A. Brown, and A. G. Martin were sworn in to office by Helen Tomlinson, City Clerk.

It was moved by Councilman Harris and seconded by Councilman Hoisington that Porter Carson be elected as President of the Council for the ensuing year; that there are many unfinished projects at the present time with which Mr. Carson is more familiar than anyone else; that his long association with the Council is of great value at this time.

It was moved by Councilman Martin and seconded by Councilman Boston that the nominations be closed and Mr. Carson be elected as President of the Council for another year by the unanimous vote of the members of the Council. Motion carried.

Mr. Tom. Matthews appeared before the Council and protested the present sprinkling restrictions and asked that the old system of sprinkling be again used.

It was moved by Councilman Harris and seconded by Councilman Hoisington that the meeting adjourn. Motion carried.
