

Grand Junction, Colo.

Feb. 23, 1949

The City Council of the City of Grand Junction, Colorado, met in regular adjourned session at 7:30 o'clock P. M. Councilmen present and answering at roll call were: Carson, Hoisington, Bagby, Colescott, Harris and President Harper. Councilman Martin was not present for roll call but attended the meeting later. Also present were City Manager Moore, City Attorney Banks and City Clerk Tomlinson.

The minutes of the regular meeting held Feb. 9th were read and approved.

This date had been set for a hearing on the violation of liquor laws, that of selling liquor to minors. Mr. J. E. White, of the Quality Liquor Store having been cited into Police Court and assessed a fine of $50.00 which was paid without protest. Mr. White appeared before the Council but stated that he had nothing to say, that this was the first time he had violated the law in selling to a minor, and that he would be very careful in the future. The Council were inclined to be lenient with Mr. White as he had always operated his business in a very creditable manner, but felt that in order to continue good enforcement practice, it was necessary to put some penalty on this violation. It was moved by Councilman Carson and seconded by Councilman Harris that the license be suspended for five days. Motion carried.

The Grand Junction Women's Club requests the free use of Lincoln Park Auditorium from May 6th through May 13th for their annual Art Festival. It was moved by Councilman Carson and seconded by Councilman Colescott that the request be granted. Roll was called on the motion with all members of the Council voting AYE. The President declared the motion carried.

Mr. Krogh appeared before the Council and requested that the City furnish him with an adequate water supply in accordance with their contract. There was considerable question as to whether the City was obligated to put in a larger supply than was already furnished. It was moved by Councilman Hoisington and seconded by Councilman Carson that the matter be tabled until the City Manager can secure more information. Motion carried.
