HEARING - INTENT TO CREATE SANITARY DISTRICT 34-76 - EL POSO

Upon waiver of formal notice, the Council established July 28, 1976, as the date of public hearing on the Intent to Create Sanitary Sewer District 34-76, in the El Poso area. The meeting was called to order by President Kozisek at 402 West Ouray Avenue, Grand Junction, Colorado. Approximately 30 property owners in the area were present for the hearing. All but two property owners were in favor of the creation of the district. It was proposed that the plans and specifications will be drawn up and that bids will be requested during February, 1977. The Resolution creating the District will be prepared for Council consideration at its regular meeting August 4, 1976. The President closed the hearing.
