

Ordinance No 1514 of 1909

An Ordinance to provide for licensing and regulating paambrokers and wagabrokers.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Grand Junction as follows:

Section I.

That from and after the passage of this act no person, persons, association or corporation shall, within the City of Grand Junction, establish or conduct the business of wagabroker, as defined by Section 3 page 610 of the laws of 1907 of the state of Colorado, without first having obtained a license so to do.

Section II.

The license fee for conducting the business of Wage broker in this City as required by Section one of this ordinance shall be $75.00 per year payable in advance as provided by Section 2 of Ordinance number 8 of said city.

Section III.

Every person, company, corporation or association, who shall hereafter obtain a license as herein provided, shall observe each and all the requirements of said act of 1907 and shall give a bond in the sum of Two Thousand ($2,000) Dollars for the faithful carrying out of the provisions of said act, and of the provisions of this ordinance. Which said bond shall be approved by the City Council before the issuance of license, and if any person, company, association or corporation to whom a license shall have been issued, shall fail to keep and observe all the requirements of said act of 1907 as well as the provisions of this ordinance, the license to him shall, by order of the City Council, be forfeited and canceled.

Section IV.

Any person, company, corporation or association who shall engage in conducting, managing, or operating the business of Wage broker in this City without first having obtained a license so to do, shall be deemed guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100, and each day said business shall be conducted without a license so to do shall constitute a separate offense.

Section V.

No person, company or corporation shall establish or conduct the business of paambroker within this city, as defined by Section 16 on page 254 of the laws of 1897 of the State of Colorado, without first having obtained a license so to do.

Section VI.

The license fee for conducting the business of paambroker in this city as required by Section V hereof shall be $75.00 payable in advance as provided by section 2 of Ordinance 8 of said City. Said license to be issued as provided by section 2 of said act of 1897.

Ordinance no. 154

Section VII

Every corporation, company or person who shall hereafter obtain a license as pawnbroker as herein provided shall observe each and all the requirements of said act (1897) concerning pawnbrokers and shall give bond in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor before the issuance of license, conditioned for the due observance of all Ordinances and regulations of the Mayor and City Council as may be passed or in force respecting pawnbrokers at any time during the continuance of such license, and for the safe keeping and return of all articles held in pawn by such pawnbroker, in accordance with the provisions of said act and if any person, company or corporation to whom a license shall have been issued shall fail to keep and observe all the requirements of said act of 1897, as well as the provisions of this Ordinance, the license to him shall by order of the City Council be forfeited and canceled.

Section VIII

Any Corporation, company or person who shall engage in conducting, managing or operating the business of pawn broker in this City, without first having obtained a license so to do, shall be deemed guilty of an offense and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100, and each day said pawnbrokers business is conducted without said license shall be deemed a separate offense.

All Ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed. This Ordinance to be in force from and after its passage.
