2004 HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH: The Board discussed the events that are being proposed for 2004 Historic Preservation Month. Kristen reported that the Colorado Historical Society had approved a grant of $250.00 to be used towards the events.

- Art Display: Board and teachers will hang the display at the next regular Board meeting – May 4 at 4:00 pm at the Wells Fargo Bank Downtown. Kristen will check with Tom Streff to coordinate school needs and getting the artwork to the bank.
- Silent Movie: Set for 7:30 pm May 14th. Kristen is coordinating with Dave Fishell and Jeanie Thomas. A VHS of the video has been ordered so that they can watch it in advance of the show. Bill Cort reported that Hart's Music would be able to provide a piano if Jeanie cannot get one. Hart's would need a week's notice and will charge $75.00. The Board suggested that posters be placed downtown and in the marquee of the Avalon if possible – Kristen will follow up.
- Awards: Unless a new chair is selected by then, Bill Jones said he could attend the Council meeting on May 19th to present the awards for the Reed Building.
- Calendar of Events/Other Coordination: The list of events will appear in the May/June Cultural Calendar – Kristen will get the same list out for a press release and to Bill Jones for the Historical Society Newsletter and to Zeb for any press the Museum can do.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:40 pm.
