

GRAND JUNCTION PLANNING COMMISSION

Tuesday, September 17, 1957

SPECIAL MEETING

A combination breakfast and meeting of the Planning Commission was held at 7:15 A. M. at the Uranium Club to discuss the verbal request by R. P. Wiseheart to rezone the south part of the property at 21st and Grand.

Members present were: Chairman Al Cornelison, Mrs. Estelle Brumbaugh, Richard Zollner, Robert Van Duesen, Howard McMullin, Claud Smith, Laird Smith, and Planning Director Gene Allen.

A field trip was taken by members to look at the area in question. After due discussion and viewing of maps, Laird Smith moved to recommend against any business zoning north of Grand Avenue in the Wiseheart property. Motion seconded and carried, with Howard McMullin and Al Cornelison voting in the negative. Multiple unit zoning is to be considered for the north side of Grand Avenue east of 20th Street.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 A. M.
