

There is no certificate of election in 1923 because the City of Grand Junction changed to a council-manager form of government on January 2, 1922 (the election took place in November, 1921 – no certificate of election was recorded in the minutes). These seven new councilmen served until the next election in April, 1925. The new Council took office on May 4, 1925.