Michele told the group about the Riverfront Run on October 28. If interested in running, contact Harding Larson. Michele is still looking for volunteers to help.

Michele reminded everyone that the RFC office would be closed on Friday so those that have not returned comments will need to get them to her by Thursday. Jamie then explained to the new members the process of commenting on new development and that Ken will be contacting them about what area they will be responsible.

Old Business

There was no old business.

New Business

Clark stated that Pat Kennedy had asked if there were plans for a retreat. Jamie stated last year the retreat was in February and he and Robert haven't talked about it yet. Will discuss and plan for the first part of 2001. Pat also asked Clark to remind everyone about the RFC Holiday Social in December at the Pinon Grill.

Urban Trails Master Plan Revision: Ken passed out MP Revision Worksheets for each section of the Redlands to be discussed. He showed the area on the map and then talked about the items highlighted on each worksheet. Group then discussed recommendations and asked Ken questions. Changes were proposed for the worksheet to clarify and make ideas more specific (this includes "on street" could mean bike route and the other is bike lane) - "Needed Improvements" and "Priority". It was decided that Needed Improvements should be Proposed Changes, add Recommended Actions and the Priority numbering systems would be #1 - Important (easy change), #2 - Important (barriers), #3 -Not Critical (easy - low budget), #4 - Lowest (lots of expense). The priority numbers will be for UTC use only.

It was also mentioned that there is no written text or report with regard to the Urban Trails Master Plan and think it would be a good idea to have one drafted when recommendations go before the City and County. Bob Cron stated that the document that went with the original plan was the multi-modal plan of 1992.

Next month the area of discussion will be West (19-26 Road, Patter - "I").

There was no further new business.

Public Comment

Bob commented that he would like to see the Black Bridge link noted on the UTC Master Plan because it is such an important connection. Ken said that would be addressed in the Orchard Mesa section review.

There was no further public comment.
