Re: Retirement
Henry E. Vander Took

Sirs:

Pursuant to my letter of resignation from the City of Grand Junction Police Department for retirement purposes, this is to advise I plan to start such retirement on February 10, 1982, based upon length of service and age. As of this date, I will have 24 years and five (5) months of service as a police officer with the City of Grand Junction and will have reached the age of 55 years. Documentation for my length of service and a copy of my birth certificate is on file with the City's Personnel Department.

Therefore, it is respectfully requested such action as is appropriate, in accordance with the statutes applicable to the "old" Police Pension Plan, be taken to authorize the payment of pension funds by the Colorado Fire and Police Pension Board in my behalf.

I understand the pension check for the month of February, 1982, will be a partial or prorated amount because of the effective date for starting the retirement and thereafter a regular sum based upon the statutory provisions.

Yours truly,
