IX. ADJOURNMENT

NEXT REGULAR MEETING November 6, 1985

 (Cont'd from front page) - fined $48 and placed on 6 months probation. Mr. Ashby explained that the City learned of the violation through the candor of the owner, Dick Will. Mr. Will was present and explained that he, as owner, did not receive notice nor a citation that the violation had occurred. The Police Department report dated August 9, 1985, did not mention any violations. A telephone conversation with the Detective, Investigations Bureau, on October 10, 1985, revealed there were no notations of any violations since the August 9, 1985, request was filed. The City Attorney recommended that the application to renew the license be approved subject to the City looking into the matter, and, if necessary, further action may be taken. Approved, subject to the City Attorney's recommendation.
