VIII. HEARING - APPLICATIONS FOR NEW LICENSES

* Frank Bering, owner of The Winery and G.B. Gladstone's, appeared at the meeting and commented that the law firm of Hearing Officer Philip Coebergh represents him and that this gives the appearance of a conflict of interest. Mr. Coebergh stated that for the record, he wanted the consent of Mr. Bering and consent of the City that he rule on the applications by Gladstone's and The Winery for the renewal of the licenses. City Attorney Ashby stated that the act of the Hearing Officer becomes ministerial only when everything else is in order, and, therefore, the City would have no objections to Mr. Coebergh passing upon it.
