There have been many questions and calls to our office regarding the game of Texas Hold'em or Poker games. We thought with the help of Brian Dyet, Investigator with the State of Colorado, Department of Revenue, Liquor Enforcement we would like to target some key issues that have been asked.

Texas Hold'em falls under "social gambling". For it to be considered "social gambling" two criteria must be met. They are: 1) bona fide social relationship and 2) no profit motive - must be present for a gambling activity to be considered legal "social gambling."

"Bona fide social relationship".

This means there must be an established relationship based upon some other common interest, other than the gambling activity, outside of the establishment. Some establishments have everyone just introduce themselves at the tables....this does NOT qualify.

"No profit motive". A licensed premise can hold a game of chance but must not charge a fee of any kind either directly or indirectly such as but not limited to:

- Cover charge
- Drink/food minimum
- Seat rental
- Buy-in (dollars paid for dollars given in chips or funny money)

Other Questions we have been asked:

Are there any games that can be wagered:

A licensee is permitted to conduct, on it licensed premises, tournaments or competitions involving games of skill as permitted by 18-10-102(2)(a) C.R.S., including the awarding of prizes or other things of value to participants in connection with the use or operation of devices such as and including, but not limited to:

- Pool tables
- Billiard tables
- Pinball machines
- Foosball machines
- Basketball games
- Air hockey games
- Shuffleboard games
- Dart games
- Bowling games
- Golf games

Licensees will not be considered in violation of this regulation if they permit on their licensed premises, cards or similar games of chance to be played between natural persons where no person is engaging in gambling as defined by 18-10-102(2) C.R.S.

Texas Hold'em continued...

Only participants of the game of skill, not observers, can place bets, ie. calcutta betting is not permitted.

Shake a Day – Dice Game

You may have seen this game somewhere; it is played with 5 or 6 dice.
You pay a $1, roll the dice, if they all land of the same number you win the pot. Remember this is just like a slot machine without the machine, you are still wagering your money with a chance to loose or win...THIS IS ILLE-GAL!!

Pull Tabs

Establishments with pull tabs must have a Club License and be licensed by the Secretary of State's Office with a Bingo/Raffle license.
