

OLORADO HISTORICAL SOCIETY Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation 1300 Broadway Denver, Colorado 80203

d Historic Preservation Penver, Colorado 80203

nventory Record

ELIGIBLE
DET. NOT ELIGIBLE
NOMINATED
CERTIFIED REHAB
DATE

NOT FOR FIELD USE

Historic Building Inventory Record 2945-133-04-007

project name	County	city	state ID no.
Current building name Kelly residence address 1255 Grand Avenue Grand Junction, CO 81501		Grand Junction temporary no. owner Eva & Floyd Kelly 1255 Grand Avenue Grand Junction, CO 81501
Grand Junetion,	CO 81301	township 15 rang	se 114 section 13 . NW 4. SW4 historic name Gibbs/Diemer residence		USGS quad name Grand Junct:	ion 1962 yr. x 7.5'15' district name		block lot(s
film roll by C Howardno 1	negative nos.	location of negatives	date of construction Deed; Homestead Claim; Polk City Directory. Grand Juncti use residence present residence historic condition x good deteriorating extent of alterations minor x moderate major describe: Remodeling front porch Addition room east side
Mode See a Western		stories	X original moved date(s) of move:
Modified Victori materials concrete foundation, w asphalt shingles		square footage 5200 + 900 basement	National Register Eligibility Individual: yes no architectural description Two story modified victorian in greek revival inspired gable-front house typical of narrow gable-front dwelling built from 1880-1930.			Contributing to district:
			associated buildings? yes type if inventoried, list ID nos.
additional pagesyes		_ no	it inventoried, list ID hos.

plan shape architect	original owner
	Florida & William E
source	Graham
- - - - - - - - - -	Clanem
	Yomostand elein, deed
builder/contractor	Homestead claim; deed 1916 City Directory GJ Directory GS
- - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -
SOUTCE	theme(s)

construction history (description, names, dates, etc. relating to major additions or alterations to orig	inal structure)
The back people was removed about 1000.07	1
The back porch was removed about 1936-37. The front porch was removed in 1941.
The front door pediment was added in 1941 (after removal of the porch).
An office addition was added to the east side in 1948-9.
The front picture window was added in 1948-49.	continued yes X no historical background (discuss important persons and events associated with this structure)
This house is located in the controversial Keith addition to Grand Junction. In 1881 G	eorge Crawford filed a claim on section 14, T1S, R1W, and William Keith filed his claim, 80 acres of which overlapped Crawford's claim. The ensuing legal battle continued until 1890. These two lots were part of a large parcel or	nce owned by the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado which planned to build a college in Grand Junction. In 1913, Flo	rida Graham purchased the property, and in 1915 Florida and William E. Graham filed a homestead entry on the	property. In 1916 an entry in the City Directory lists them as resident at 1255 Grand Avenue. In 1917 the purchased by Mrs. Mamie Moeser Gibbs with money received from the railroad after Charles F. Gibbs, engineer, in a train wreck. Mrs. Gibbs was the daughter of Philip and early resident of Grand Junction (1892). Four generations of this family lived in
	. 1 2
to the current owner in 1974.	>
to the current owner in 1974.	continued yes X no to the current owner in 1974. significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below)	continued yes X no significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below)
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: historical significance	c:
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master x associated with significance.	ee:
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: historical significance represents the work of a master X associated with signi possesses high artistic values X associated with signi	e: ficant persons ficant events or patterns
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master x associated with significance.	e: ficant persons ficant events or patterns
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X represents a type, period or method of construction contributes to an hist	ce: Clicant persons Clicant events or patterns toric district
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X associated with signi x represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of C	ificant persons ificant events or patterns toric district Grand Junctions pioneer families who
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X associated with significance x associated with significance This house was the home of four generations of one of C immigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a representation.	ificant persons Ificant events or patterns toric district Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city.
significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X associated with significance x represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of C immigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent philip Moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one	Grant persons ificant events or patterns toric district Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. Is son joined the Alaska gold rush along significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X associated with significance x associated with significance x represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a representation philip Moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daughter	Grant persons Ificant events or patterns Ioric district Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. Is son joined the Alaska gold rush along the Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was architectural significance: architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of 0 immigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent Philip Moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member	Grant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns architectural significance:	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was rot the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of a long time railroad worker who died local clubs and organizations including significance (check appropriate categories and briefly justify below) architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x associated with significance represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of C immigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represe Philip Moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction Statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent a type and a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of son a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central tonal Planning Commission. She also
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X represents a type, period or method of construction Statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of committed to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent Philip Moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Region worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of son a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central tonal Planning Commission. She also
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction Statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent a type and a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of son a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central tonal Planning Commission. She also architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values Tepresents a type, period or method of construction This house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represented to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represented to the Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member of the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regional Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central fonal Planning Commission. She also helped plan the downtown renovation
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values X represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of contributes to an hist contributes to an hist contributes to an hist contributes to an active children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house.	Grant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction This house was the home of four generations of one of committed to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. Mesa County Clerk & Recorder's Office, indexes, deeds, plats Mesa County Assessor's Office, lot & block books, appraisal and	Grant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant events or patterns Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction This house was the home of four generations of one of construction with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member to the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. The Grand Junction Town Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journal Teache Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journal	Grant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant events or patterns Ificant events or patterns Ificant persons Ificant events or patterns Ificant
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction this house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represent high moeser was a cigar manufacturer, member of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. The Grand Junction Town Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journa Summer 1986, by Janet Messe. Grand Junction News, Dec 29, 1883, p1	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was read to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central ional Planning Commission. She also helped plan the downtown renovation continuedyesX_ no
architectoral significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction this house was the home of four generations of one of committeed to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a representence of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. Alternates (be specific) Mesa County Clerk & Recorder's Office, indexes, deeds, plats Mesa County Assessor's Office, lot & block books, appraisal and The Grand Junction Town Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journa Summer 1986, by Janet Mease. Grand Junction News, Dec 29, 1883, p1 Grand Junction Daily Sentinel Apr 26, 1909, p5; June 22, 1917, p1; Feb 24, 1926, p1; June 20, 1917, p1; Feb 24,	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was read to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central ional Planning Commission. She also helped plan the downtown renovation continuedyesXno
architectural significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction statement of significance This house was the home of four generations of one of commigrated to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a represented with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member to the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. The Grand Junction Town Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journa Summer 1986, by Janet Mesae. Grand Junction News, Dec 29, 1883, p1 Grand Junction Daily Sentinel Apr 26, 1909, p5; June 22, 1917, p1; Feb 24, 1926, p1; and to Sumber Fire Insurance Maps, 188 Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps, 188	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central ional Planning Commission. She also helped plan the downtown renovation continuedyesXno
architectoral significance: represents the work of a master possesses high artistic values x represents a type, period or method of construction this house was the home of four generations of one of committeed to the United States in the 1860s. The history of the residents is a representence of the Elks, raised five children, one with other Grand Junction citizens, and one daughter worked at the Fair Store; daught a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, was a president of and active member Locomotive Engineers, and worked as an insurance secretary. Charles F. Gibbs was on the job. Eleanor Gibbs Diemer was active in local affairs and was president of many the Federated Women's Club, the Republican Club, the Mesa County Parent Teache Committee (vice chairman) and was the first woman appointed to the City and Regi worked on the Grand Junction Planning Commission from its beginnings in 1963 and to a shopping mall. Her children were also raised in this house. Alternates (be specific) Mesa County Clerk & Recorder's Office, indexes, deeds, plats Mesa County Assessor's Office, lot & block books, appraisal and The Grand Junction Town Company and the Land Dispute With William Keith", Journa Summer 1986, by Janet Mease. Grand Junction News, Dec 29, 1883, p1 Grand Junction Daily Sentinel Apr 26, 1909, p5; June 22, 1917, p1; Feb 24, 1926, p1; June 20, 1917, p1; Feb 24,	Grand Junctions pioneer families who entative history of the growth of the city. It is son joined the Alaska gold rush along ter Mrs. Charles F. (Mamie) Gibbs was refer to the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of so a long time railroad worker who died a local clubs and organizations including the Association, the Republican Central ional Planning Commission. She also helped plan the downtown renovation continuedyesXno

