CONSTRUCTION HISTORY (include description and dates of major additions, alterations, or demolitions): Additional construction or modifications not noted in Assessor's records.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND (discuss important persons and events associated with this building): Sprigg Shackelford, a leading Western Colorado jurist for some 50 years, lived in the house from its construction ca. 1910-1919. During that time he was judge of the 7th Judicial District. James and Jean Chesser, a rancher, were the owners ca. 1922 through 1947. After the death of her husband in 1937, Mrs. Chesser rented the house to Burley and David Anderson, a cattleman, but returned to occupy the house ca. 1941. Florence Giese, widow of Carl, was the tenant ca. 1943-1946. (Note: Judge Shackelford is more prominently associated with Gunnison County.)
