NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City of Grand Junction, Applicant, will appeal to the Colorado Supreme Court from the Order entered April 29, 1975, denying Applicant's right to store direct flow. This appeal is taken pursuant to the Order entered October 3, 1975, and mailed October 7, 1975, denying Applicant's Motion For Amended Order or New Trial.

The water right sought to be reviewed is the right of the City of Grand Junction, under application made January 23, 1973, to store water from direct flow on the North Fork of Kannah Creek in the Purdy Mesa Reservoir during the periods of time that such water is not immediately required for the City's municipal purposes.

The City of Grand Junction, Colorado, is the Appellant. Appellees are the Kannah Creek Water Users Association, Lloyd V. Wright, Jennie M. Wright, the Kannah Creek Extension Ditch Association, and Ralph Kelling, Jr. Division Engineer.
