Dear Ms. Ostowick:

The City of Grand Junction has reviewed Colorado Discover Ability's request for written consent to allow Colorado Canyons Association, a nonprofit organization, to use a designated portion of the property leased by Colorado Discover Ability from the City at 599 Struthers Avenue, Grand Junction, Colorado.

Pursuant to Section 6, Use, of the Lease Agreement between the City of Grand Junction, as Owner, and Colorado Discover Ability, as Tenant, Colorado Discover Ability is authorized to use the property for the purpose of providing adaptive recreation opportunities for people with disabilities and their friends and families. Section 6 further provides that Colorado Discover Ability shall not use or permit the property to be used for any other purpose without the prior written consent of the City, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Based on the representations made in your request, including that Colorado Canyons Association is a nonprofit organization with programming complementary to Colorado Discover Ability's mission, and that Colorado Discover Ability will remain the primary tenant and operator of the property, the City hereby grants written consent for Colorado Canyons Association to use a designated portion of the leased property, subject to the conditions stated below.

This consent is limited to the use described in your request: use by Colorado Canyons Association of a designated portion of the leased premises in furtherance of nonprofit programming that is complementary to, supportive of, and consistent with Colorado Discover Ability's mission and the permitted use of the property under the Lease. This consent does not authorize any use inconsistent with the Lease, the City's ordinances or regulations, applicable zoning or land use requirements, or any applicable federal, state, or local law.

This consent is conditioned upon the following:

1. Colorado Discover Ability shall remain the tenant under the Lease and shall remain primarily and fully responsible for performance of all obligations, covenants, conditions, liabilities, and duties under the Lease.

2. Colorado Discover Ability shall ensure that Colorado Canyons Association's use of the property complies with all terms and conditions of the Lease, including without limitation the provisions concerning use, laws, waste and nuisance, maintenance, indemnity, insurance, access, rules and regulations, and any other provision applicable to occupancy or use of the property.
3. Colorado Discover Ability shall not assign the Lease, sublet the property, or permit any further use or occupancy of the property by any other person or entity except as expressly authorized by the Lease and with the City's prior written consent where required.
4. This consent does not amend, modify, waive, or release any term, condition, obligation, default provision, remedy, right, or protection contained in the Lease. All Lease terms remain in full force and effect.
5. This consent is based on the information provided to the City. Any material change in the nature, scope, duration, space allocation, operational structure, or use by Colorado Canyons Association shall require prior written notice to, and written approval by, the City.
6. Colorado Discover Ability shall provide the City with any additional information reasonably requested by the City concerning Colorado Canyons Association's use of the property, including the scope of use, space allocation, operational arrangement, insurance, and compliance with the Lease.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed to create a landlord-tenant relationship between the City and Colorado Canyons Association, to release Colorado Discover Ability from any obligation under the Lease, or to constitute consent to any subsequent assignment, sublease, transfer, or third-party use of the property.

Sincerely,

CITY OF GRAND JUNCTION

The Owner's costs, for which Tenant shall be liable are stipulated to be $500.00 per day from the first day of the commencement of the holdover period, and Tenant shall remain liable for all other payments provided for hereunder, and such holding over shall be subject to all of the other terms and conditions of the Lease. In addition, Tenant stipulates and agrees to pay the Owner for all damages, consequential as well as direct, sustained by Owner resulting from or arising out of Tenant's possession and the process of eviction of the Tenant. No such holding over shall be deemed to constitute a renewal or extension of the term of the Lease.

25. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event that at any time during the term of this Lease, either Owner or the Tenant institutes any action or proceeding against the other relating to the provisions of this Lease or any default hereunder, then the unsuccessful party in such action or proceedings agrees to reimburse the successful party for the reasonable expenses of such action including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred therein by the successful party.

26. PAST DUE SUMS

If Tenant fails to pay, when the same is due and payable, any rent or other sum required to be paid by it hereunder, such unpaid amounts shall bear interest from the due date thereof to the date of payment at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, Owner's right concerning such interest and service fee shall be limited by the maximum amount which may properly be charged by Owner for such purposes under applicable law.

27. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

27.1 No partnership. Owner does not by this Lease, in any way or for any purpose, become a partner or joint venturer of Tenant in the conduct of its business or otherwise.

27.2 Force Majeure. Owner and Tenant shall be excused for the period of any delay in the performance of any obligations hereunder (except as to the payment of rent) when prevented from so doing by cause or causes beyond said party's control, including labor disputes, civil commotion, war, governmental regulations or controls, fire or other casualty, inability to obtain any material or services, or acts of God.

27.3 No Waiver. Failure of a party to insist upon the strict performance of any provision or to exercise any option hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach. No provision of this Lease shall be deemed to have been waived unless such waiver be in writing signed by the party making the waiver.

27.4 Notices. Any notice, demand, request, or other instruments which may be or is required to be given under this Lease shall be delivered in person or sent by United States certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, and shall be addressed (a) if to Owner, at the place specified for payment of rent, and (b) if to Tenant, either at the Property or at any current address for Tenant which is known to Owner. Either party may designate such other address as shall be given by written notice. Such notice, demand, request, or other instrument shall be deemed delivered effective as of the third day after the day on which it was mailed pursuant hereto.

29. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Tenant's substantial failure to keep and observe all rules and regulations shall constitute a breach of the terms of this Lease in the same manner as if the rules and regulations were contained herein as covenants. In the case of any conflict between rules and regulations and this Lease, this Lease shall be controlling.

30. INSPECTION

Tenant agrees that in taking this Lease, it is governed by his own inspection of the Property and his own judgement of the desirability and suitability of it for its purposes, and has not been governed or influenced by any representation of the Owner as to the condition and character of the Property, or as to the tenantability thereof; that no agreements, stipulations, reservations, exceptions, or conditions whatsoever have been made or entered into in regard to said Property or this Lease, which will in any way vary, contradict or impair the validity of this Lease or of any of its terms and conditions, and that no modification of this Lease shall be binding unless it be in writing and executed and acknowledged in due form for recording by all of the parties hereto. Terry Harper, Executive Director
c/o Colorado DiscoverAbility
Grand Junction, CO 81505

Re: Letter of Intent Regarding Property

Dear Mr. Harper,

I am pleased with the progress that our discussions have taken so far and believe that it is now time to reduce some of those matters to writing. Set forth below is an outline of the proposed terms and conditions for your use of a portion of the City's Las Colonias Park property for the headquarters of the Colorado Discoverability program center. The construction and development of the program center will be referred to herein as "the Project" or "Project."

As you are aware the Las Colonias Park master plan provides for development of the property with certain amenities to compliment the trail and the river. The plan calls for the ultimate construction of an amphitheater. Of the approximately 110 acres in the Park less than 7 acres will be for buildings. It is our understanding that you would like to enter into a long term lease or other use agreement for up to $\frac{3}{4}$ acres of the Park property. Please provide a survey or other dimensioned drawing showing the area that you propose for the Project at your earliest convenience.

As you may also be aware, certain areas of the Park property may be located in or near the floodplain. Because of the proximity of your Project to the Colorado River, certain engineering and/or floodplain modifications and certifications will be required. While the City has reason to believe that the engineering and/or floodplain problems may reasonably be mitigated, if the same are not then the City shall not be liable to you for any cost or expense you incur and/or for any lost profit, lost advantage or lost opportunity that occurs because your Project does not proceed and/or does not proceed as you had intended.

Additionally, please be aware that the property may have soil and other contamination which could limit the size and/or type and/or occupancy of the building. It is very likely that any building you construct will require radon mitigation. While the City has reason to believe that the environmental problems may reasonably be mitigated, if the same are not then the City shall not be liable to you for any cost or expense you incur and/or for any lost profit, lost advantage or lost opportunity that occurs because your Project does not proceed and/or does not proceed as you had intended.

In support of the Project you have provided certain written materials describing the program and the building that you intend to build. Those materials are incorporated by this reference as if fully set forth. Because the representations made therein are essential to the formation of a working relationship between you and the City, the City has and will continue to rely on the information that you have supplied as being complete and accurate. You must update the City if or as the information changes. The City will also rely on any oral representations that you make or have made regarding the Project and your commitment to carry out agreements pertaining to it.

This letter sets forth certain terms which shall serve as the basis for a binding written lease agreement between the parties. The lease agreement, which will be subject to ratification by the City Council, will be for use of a portion of the property (approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ acres) that would be suitable for the Project. If the property is leased certainly we will subordinate our interests as reasonably necessary or required by Project financiers. In order to ensure that the Project is operated as a public amenity the City will expect that the lease contain an option for the City to acquire the property as the end of the lease or upon other agreed mutually acceptable terms.

This letter reflects the present understanding of the parties regarding some basic terms of the forthcoming lease. It further evidences the desire of the parties to reach a final and complete agreement but does not constitute, nor may it be construed to constitute, a contract at this time. This letter shall be superseded by the lease agreement between the parties, if any. In the event that a lease agreement is not executed by the parties, this letter, at the option of either party to the letter, may be rescinded, revoked and canceled and of no further effect. Nothing herein may be deemed to obligate or bind any party to any terms, conditions or agreements and no party shall assert a claim or incur any liability arising out of the execution of this letter.

Subject to the foregoing, the City is prepared to:

- 1) Lease $\frac{3}{4}$ acre of the Las Colonias property to Colorado Discoverability for the purpose of constructing the Project, including performing any and all diligence necessary in anticipation of construction. Specifically, you shall have the right to explore research and confirm the environmental condition of the property and/or ascertain information about the floodplain and/or any other actual or perceived impediments to the development of the site for the Project.

- 2) You will have until December 31, 2016 to complete the construction subject to circumstances beyond your control i.e., acts of God, strikes, delays caused by local, federal or state regulatory approvals. Occupancy and use of the Project shall occur as soon thereafter as regulatory approvals allow. You may request, in writing, extensions to the completion date. Any extension(s) is (are) solely within the City's discretion. The Project shall be designed, constructed and used as a headquarters for Colorado DiscoverAbility. The building shall be ADA accessible and it shall be of good to above average quality construction with paint(s) and finishes acceptable to the City. To the extent reasonably practicable the building shall use recognized means of energy conservation and “green” building practices.

3) The Project shall comply with all applicable City codes, rules and regulations.

4) The City reserves the right, upon reasonable request, to review and approve the contract(s) and the proposed covenants, conditions and restrictions and other operational and finance documents for the Project as it affects the City’s duty to comply with affirmative action, to protect the City’s credit and otherwise to comply with applicable state and local law, codes, rules or regulations.

5) The City may act on the lease agreement only by and through its City Council. The signatures of Rich Englehart and/or Rob Schoeber constitute the authorized signatures of staff which you may rely on to be the act of the City of Grand Junction for purposes of this letter of intent.

6) You will manage construction of the Project. The City may offer and you may consider input from the City about the means and methods of construction. The paint and finishes for the building shall be approved in advance by the City. The paint and finishes shall not change without written approval.

a) You shall manage the Project by providing construction management and engineering oversight by a Colorado licensed professional engineer in good standing. The construction management and engineering review and oversight shall be in accordance with the construction plans, generally accepted engineering practices and if applicable, the standards set by the City.

b) The City, by and through its personnel, shall be responsible for preparing, reviewing and approving the site plan for the Project. Site plan review and approval shall be in conformance with City code. The parties understand and agree that time is of the essence and accordingly the City agrees to prosecute the work in a timely manner.

7) The City will agree subject to final terms that are mutually acceptable to both parties, to maintain the landscaping for the Project. You shall install and maintain the landscaping until it is established. The City will require a payment of $100.00 per month to help defray the cost of the landscape maintenance services. Landscape maintenance shall include seasonal upkeep of turf, trees, shrub, flowers, etc., excluding snow removal.

8) If/when CDA determines that to not occupy the building, either on a temporary or permanent basis, it shall give the City the first option to occupy or purchase the building improvements from CDA at a mutually agreeable price.

If the general terms and conditions set forth above are acceptable to you, please sign and date the enclosed copy of this Letter and return the same to us on or before January 15, 2015.

If I may be of assistance or should you need further clarification, please do not hesitate to call.
