Mr. Joe Lacy, Chairman
Pension Board
Grand Junction Fire Dept.

Dear Mr. Lacy:

Concerning the matter of Firemen Hoyt Brown, who is on a Temporary Disability from the Grand Junction Fire Dept. at the present time. The Board set up an appointment for Firemen Hoyt Brown in Denver Colorado on July 30th, 1964, it now come to my attention that Firemen Brown is not going to keep this appointment.

As a member of the Grand Junction Fire^{men} Pension Board I feel that this leave us no recourse but to relieve Firemen Hoyt Brown from the Temporary Disability Roles of the Grand Junction Fire Dept. I would futher like to vote that Firemen Hoyt Brown Pension Check for the month of July be reduce^d from Full Pay to $\frac{1}{2}$ Pay. I would vote that Firemen Hoyt Brown be relieved of his Pension as of August 1st, 1964

Sincerely

R. T. Mantlo
