

GJPD Time Capsule

Placed September 8, 2012 on the north side of the building below a plaque that reads

Over the place in the wall where the time capsule is encased is a stone that reads

Capsule Contents:

- Police Officer's uniform shirt with badge
- Gas mask used by officers
- Pistol holster
- Full copy of The Daily Sentinel newspaper from July 29, 2012 featuring stories about the new building
- SD Memory Card (used for storage of digital photos and other data)
- Child DNA identification kit
- Police employee photo and signature book with Chief John Camper's badge
- Collection of newspaper clippings detailing the history of the efforts to build a new police station
- Invitation to the Grand Opening ceremony held on September 8, 2012
- Copy of Chief John Camper's remarks made during the Grand Opening ceremony
- Copy of email sent by Chief John Camper to all employees announcing that the City had received the keys to the new police station
- Copy of notification sent by the Grand Junction Regional Communication Center announcing that the new 911 dispatch center was up and running
- Chief's Challenge Coin #186
- Various educational brochures
- Program from the 2012 Police Department Awards Ceremony
- July 2012 monthly newsletter from the Grand Junction Regional Communication Center
- Printout of the Grand Junction Police Department Facebook page
- Recruiting flyers for Police Officer and Police Service Technician positions
- Recruitment brochure
- 2012 City of Grand Junction Calendar and Annual Report
- 2011 Grand Junction Regional Communication Center Annual Report
- 2011 Grand Junction Police Department Annual Report
- 1938 Grand Junction City Manager's Annual Report
- Photo album
- Digital camera
- Floppy disk used in the 1990s
- Grand Junction Police patch
- Grand Junction Police lapel pin
- Grand Junction Police ink pen
- Grand Junction Police civilian employee's hat