Item 3: Update: Suplizio Infield Turf

Marc Mancuso gave an update about the renovations of Suplizio infield. Renovations are currently underway with the infield now being about 10 inches lower than it was and sloping of the field for draining purposes. Sod is set to arrive Thursday, October 4, 2018. If the weather cooperates, the sod should be laid and complete by Thursday afternoon. A new grow tarp was purchased to help get the new sod roots established before the first baseball game. Bruce Hill inquired on if the renovation was on budget, Marc Macuso responded telling the board that there have been a few outside purchases that have been covered out of the Operations Fund.

Item 4: Lincoln Park Stadium Complex Master Plan

Rob Schoeber spoke of Lincoln Park Sports Complex projects and reviewed the 2003 Stadium Improvements Plan (attached). Marc Mancuso was available to briefly answer individual's questions about potential future upgrades and what they entailed. Austin Kaiser with CMU expressed interest of getting a video board at Stocker Stadium hopefully by the 2019 football season. Bruce Hill asked the board if they had specific renovations or improvements to add to the Lincoln Park Sports Complex Master Plan. The Board acknowledged that parking is an issue and could be addressed with future improvements. Bruce Hill asked the board to come back with ideas and suggestions and also wanted the dollar amounts to be listed on the 2003 Stadium Improvements Plan to go over at a future time.

Item 5: 2019 Meeting Schedule

Future meeting dates are scheduled for January 8, 2019, April 2, 2019, July 2, 2019, and October 1, 2019. The board agreed upon the future scheduled dates.

Item 6: Adjourn

The board commented that this would be the last meeting with Rob Schoeber as he is retiring in December. Rob thanked the board. Bruce Hill adjourned the meeting at 1:00 pm.
