Happy New Year!! Here is a recap of 2012

Here's what happened in liquor licensing in 2012:

There were 12 new applications:

- 5-Hotel/Restaurants
- 2-Tavern
- 4-Beer and Wine
- 1-Retail Liquor Store

There were also 9 ownership transfers, 2 change of locations, 19 changes in corporate structure, 3 premise modifications, 13 new manager registrations, 7 trade name changes, 14 outdoor dining leases, 1 art gallery permit, 30 special events permits, 30 stipulations, agreements, and orders, and 132 license renewals, 4 with tasting permits.

The City hosted eight Alcohol Server Responsibility Training sessions with a total number of 376 attendees.

A special thank you to PST Joe Patrick for all his work he did on these trainings throughout 2012.

OCCUPATIONAL TAX

Notices were mailed on December 3, 2012 for the 2013 Occupational Tax that was due January 1, 2013. A big thanks for all of the establishments that have paid the tax due. Unpaid Occupational Tax will become delinquent on February 1, 2013. Establishments who have not paid the tax by February 1, 2013 will be subject to interest on the tax. Interest shall accrue on all delinquent taxes from the day of delinquency until paid or collected, at the rate of 1% per month. Late notices will be sent out to establishments on February 4, 2013 and will show a 1% interest assessment.

Colorado Liquor and Beer Code, Special Events Permits, and Colorado Liquor Rules

Just a reminder that you can go to the State Liquor Enforcement's website at: <http://www.colorado.gov/revenue/liquor> to get the laws and rules. Click on the Laws and Rules button and then select Liquor. Displayed will be the Colorado Liquor Code; Colorado Beer Code; Special Events Permits; and Colorado Liquor Rules. Each of these are an Adobe PDF file that you can open with Adobe Reader and are searchable. The Liquor Code has been updated as of August 8, 2012. There have been lots of changes so we encourage you to go take a look and even print these out to have a copy on hand at your establishment. The Colorado Liquor Rules have only been updated as of May 30, 2012, so they do not contain the most recent changes that were effective from the 2012 Legislative Session.

Liquor License Renewal Applications

As many of you already know, the State Liquor Enforcement office has revised the liquor license renewal application. It is now a one page form instead of the previous two page form. The State mails out the renewal form to the mailing address they have on file for each liquor licensee approximately 120 days prior to the expiration of the liquor license. The renewal form, along with checks for both State fees and City fees are due in the City Clerk's office 45 days prior to the expiration of the liquor license. If the 45 day time frame is getting close and you have not received the renewal form, you can go the State's Liquor Enforcement website at <http://www.colorado.gov/revenue/liquor>, under forms and publications, and find the Renewal Application Form (DR8400). It is a fillable Adobe PDF form, so you can complete it online, print it out, sign and date it, and submit it to the City Clerk's Office within the 45 day time frame. Keep in mind that a liquor license can still be renewed within 90 days after the liquor license expires. There is a $500 fee for filing a renewal application after the expiration date. Once a liquor license expires, no alcohol beverages can be served if a renewal application has not been filed with the City Clerk's office.
