State of Colorado

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Local partners will help focus the nation's attention on the importance of recycling with businesses, industries, government agencies, nonprofit organizations, and individuals joining together to encourage their friends, neighbors, and coworkers, to pledge to learn more about recycling options in our community, and educate them on recycling more materials; and

WHEREAS, although there has been a significant increase in the amount of recycling in the City of Grand Junction to date, we must also continue to focus on other initiatives such as waste reduction, composting, the reuse of products and materials, and purchasing recycled products; and

WHEREAS, community leaders can help encourage recycling by informing citizens about local recycling options, and

WHEREAS, it is important that we encourage all City of Grand Junction citizens to become involved by learning more about the many recycled and recyclable products available to them as consumers; and

WHEREAS, participating in America Recycles Day 2012 is one way citizens can help raise awareness about the need to reduce waste by reusing, recycling, and buying recycled-content products.

NOW, THEREFORE, Bill Pitts, by the power vested in him as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim November 15, 2012 as in the City of Grand Junction and encourage all citizens to take a moment from their busy lives and think about how they can recycle to better this beautiful community we all share .

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Mayor Pitts has hereunto set his hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 7th day of November, 2012.
