

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the Grand Junction community has been shaped throughout its history by the wide-ranging vision of many colorful and interesting men and women; and*
- WHEREAS, the stories of these significant men and women are to be told and retold through a walking tour of history for the benefit of those who love Grand Junction – its current and future children, residents, visitors and history-seekers; and*
- WHEREAS, the many and distinctive people who create Grand Junction’s unique sense of place have come and gone, and will continue to do so; and*
- WHEREAS, people, time and events create the future; and*
- WHEREAS, leaders act, the future unfolds, and the people and their deeds fade into the mists of the past; and*
- WHEREAS, the City of Grand Junction was Colorado’s first municipality to win the prestigious Governor’s Award for wide-ranging use of arts and culture to build community; and*
- WHEREAS, a team of local citizens has worked with the local arts and historical communities to create The Legends Sculpture Project; and*
- WHEREAS, The Legends Sculpture Project annually will commemorate a key local figure by erecting a sculpture depicting that man or woman; and*
- WHEREAS, these sculptures will be held in public trust as part of downtown Grand Junction’s Art on the Corner; and*
- WHEREAS, the first of these sculptures, honoring The Daily Sentinel Publisher, Philanthropist and Community Activist Walter Walker is being installed on December 12, 2008.*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gregg Palmer, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim Friday, December 12, 2008 as in the City of Grand Junction, and encourage the entire community to support The Legends Sculpture Project in its efforts to both preserve the history and add to the beauty of our City.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 1st day of December, 2008.

Mayor
