

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, that all men, regardless of the color of their skin, the persuasion of their theology, or the level of their intelligence, were created by one God with one blood, designed and fashioned to live on one earth with one another; and

WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, Jr. was a minister who dedicated his life for this purpose so we may, as Americans, truly live out the Declaration of Independence as we hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; and

WHEREAS, the third Monday of each January be acknowledged as Martin Luther King, Jr. Day in Grand Junction , not as a city holiday but as a day to acknowledge a great American who awakened a nation's conscience to not judge a person by the color of their skin but by the content of their heart.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Doody, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim January 21, 2008 as in the City of Grand Junction and encourage the citizens of Grand Junction to observe this day with appropriate activities and programs that honor the memory and legacy of Dr. King.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 17th day of January, 2008.

Mayor
